HOGAN OPENS HIS CAMPAIGN

Trust-Busting Crusade Hits Alliance Concern.

M'CASKEY REGISTER COMPANY INVOLVED

Hogan Says It's Trust and Should Be Dissolved.

In Petition Filed Today Attorney General Declares McCaskey Company Misuses Its Franchises and Privileges Granted Under Charter and Assumes Others Not Included in the Charter.

Columbus, O., Jan 26.—Attorney General Timothy S Hogan opened his trust-busting" campaign, today, by filing suit in common pleas court against the McCaskey Register company, of Alliance, a $1,000,000 corporation, asking that it be declared a trust and be dissolved.

Hogan declares in his petition that the concern has misused its franchises and privileges granted under its charter, and that it has assumed privileges not granted in its charter. It was originally organized, he says, to be a trust

The petition further alleges that the concern destroyed competition by instructing its officers, agents and spies' to exterminate all rivals; that regular meetings were held to formulate plans of destruction; that records of competitive firms were secured through "spies" or purchased from employes of rivals, or stock was bought in these companies through "dummies" and then suits instituted to gain access to the books

The McCaskey concern advised customers of other firms not to pay their bills, and then when they were sued they furnished legal counsel for defense, Hogan continues.

Company's History.

Hogan says they froze out small dealers by threatening to start branches in their vicinity If the threats were to no avail, they started a store and imitated the goods of rivals and sold them at a reduced price, the petition avers

The concern is charged with keeping a "graveyard" at Alliance, full of goods of vanquished rivals, which was shown to firms to scare them into selling out Hogan charges that the concern violated its charter in getting excess price for goods, and that the officers diverted and misapplied funds by employing spies to gain information about rival companies

The McCaskey Register company manufactures accounting registers, filing cabinets, and other office fixtures It was incorporated under the laws of Ohio, June 30, 1903, for $30,000 In 1904 the capital stock was increased to $100,000, in 1907 to $200,000, in 1908 to $500,000 and in 1909 to $1,000,000.

REBELS CAPTURE CITY OF CEIBA

General Christmas Now Has Full Command.

Truxillo, Honduras, Jan. 26.—The overthrow of the government of President Davila is believed to be very close, today, following the capture, last night, of the city of Ceiba on the coast, by the rebel forces led by General Lee Christmas, the American

All of the troops garrisoning Ceiba deserted the Davila colors, today, and swore allegiance to the rebel cause The attack on Ceiba met with little resistance, after Christmas' forces had trained machine guns on the federal troops from the south and rear of the city.

The rebel forces are now planning to attack Puerto Cortez.

General Christmas is now in supreme command of the rebels, but it is believed Provisional President Bonilla will join them before the attack on Puerto Cortez.

DETECTIVE KILLS FLEEING BANDIT

Toledo Sleuth Has Trying Time with Robber.

Toledo, O., Jan 26.—William Phillipski, twenty-four, released a few days ago from the Mansfield reformatory, was shot three times and killed, last night, by William Delehanty, city detective, who was trying to arrest Phillipski for robbing a drug-store proprietor and two pedestrians at the points of revolvers One bullet from two revolvers used by the bandit furrowed Delehanty's scalp and another lodged in the officer's thigh.

Rings which had been stolen but a short time before from one of the bandit's victims were found on Phillipski's hands and the watch of the same victim was in his pocket.

PASSENGERS LANDED FROM BURNING BOAT

The Queen Takes Fire When Off Point Reyes.

San Francisco, Jan. 26.—The ninety-five passengers of the Pacific coast steamship company's liner, Queen, were landed, today, in launches which met the burning vessel in the channel. The passengers were in a state of panic. The Queen, accompanied by two fireboats, was rushed into shallow water, where she may be sunk if the fire gains further headway.

The Queen was on her way to Puget sound ports from San Diego, California. The fire was discovered off Point Reyes. The hatches were battened down and live steam turned into them to stifle the flames.

As soon as the passengers learned of the fire there was a rush for the boats and the officers had to fight some of the panic-stricken.

Wireless messages for help soon brought other boats to the Queen's assistance, but Captain Shea refused aid, declaring he could bring his vessel into port. The other ships stood by in case of need.

The Queen is badly damaged and at 8 a. m. the fire was still burning, though it was expected the flames would be extinguished before noon. The cause of the fire is unknown.

VODKA KING IS HELD BY POLICE

Authorities of Nice Hold Man from Dayton, Ohio.

Nice, Jan. 26.—The police are in communication, today, with the authorities of several American cities regarding the disposition to be made of Leonard H. Kline, supposed to be of Dayton, Ohio, who was arrested at the local race track, yesterday, on a swindling charge. Kline is nicknamed the "vodka king." In his rooms at the Royal hotel were found a complete burglary outfit. There was also a "crooked" roulette wheel, marked cards and "loaded" dice.

Kline mixed with the best society and is accused of swindling winners at Monte Carlo.

WOMAN KILLED IN QUEEN CITY

Police Are Searching for Her Husband.

THE MURDERER USES FLATIRON

Victim's Skull Fractured in Nine Places.

Woman's Body Is Found in Bed, Where It Is Believed the Blows That Kill Her Are Struck After She Is Hit and Falls Helpless. House is Ransacked After Woman Is Murdered.

Cincinnati, Jan. 26.—The police of nearby cities were asked, today, to join in a search for Oliver P. Smith, thirty-two, a post-card vender, whose wife, Mrs. Oliver P. Smith, forty-six, was murdered, Wednesday, at her home, No. 411 Plum street, where she conducted a rooming house. The woman's body was found Wednesday night in bed where it is believed the blows that killed her were struck after she had been hit and fell helpless on the bed. A flatiron, covered with blood, was the murderer's weapon. His victim's skull was fractured in nine places.

Smith was the woman's second husband. He has been arrested a number of times, but through the intercession of his wife, the police say, cases that were established against him were not prosecuted.

Mrs. Smith was a rescue workers at a mission on George street and married Smith three years ago after he had declared he would reform, the police say.

The Discovery.

Three weeks ago Mrs. Smith called on Chief of Police Jackson and said her husband had threatened her.

When detectives visited the Smith home, Wednesday night, they found several religious mottos hanging on the wall.

One of them bore the inscription: "Unto you He is precious."

Mrs. Smith's apartments were ransacked after she had been killed.

The discovery of the murder was made when roomers failed to see Mrs. Smith about her apartments Wednesday night. The body was covered with blankets.

Neighbors and roomers told the police they heard the woman quarreling with a man, Wednesday morning, and that later they found her in tears.

TWO ELECTION REFORM BILLS

Scheduled To Be Introduced in Legislature.

ONE WILL ELIMINATE PARTY DESIGNATION

The Other Provides for Reform in Registration.

Representative E. K. Bruce, of Hamilton County, Fathers Both Measures—Voters Are Required To Give Date and Year of Birth Instead of Giving Ages—Must Give a Description.

Columbus, O., Jan. 26.—The two biggest election reform measures of the session will be introduced in the house of representatives, this afternoon, by Representative E. K. Bruce, Democrat, of Hamilton county. Both measures are introduced at the request of the Hamilton county Democratic committee.

The first measure provides for the modified Massachusetts ballot which will do away with the party emblems, the circle and the party column. It will also eliminate the party designation in the election of county, municipal and judiciary officers. The party designation will be retained on the state and national tickets.

The other bill provides for reforms in the registration of voters in cities. If properly enforced, it will stop illegal voting, such as has been uncovered by the Cincinnati investigation.

The ballot reform bill provides that the candidates for all offices and all questions to be submitted to a referendum vote shall be placed on the same ballot, except in the case of election of members of the board of education. Because of the number of school districts in the townships, it was found to be impracticable to include candidates for this office.

The candidates for each office will be grouped in one column in alphabetical order, the names rotating so that each candidate will at intervals head the ticket.

In the case of national and state tickets the letter R, or D will be used after the name to designate the party affiliation of the candidate. Another deviation from the Massachusetts plan is that the names of all the presidential electors will be used instead of only one. It restricts the name of a candidate to but one place on the ticket though he may be nominated by more than one party.

The bill also says that paper which will not show pencil marks through it must be used.

As to Registration.

In Bruce's bill for reform in registration, he provides for three new columns and questions in the registration book. He wants the prospective voter to give the place of residence at the last previous registration, his occupation, and a personal description.

In the column under place of residence at last registration, the voter must give his postoffice address and street number if any. In the occupation column he must give the name of his employer, if he has one.

In the personal description column must be given the color of the voter's hair and eyes, his apparent height and weight and any other apparent means of identification, such as the loss of a member, whether smooth-shaven or not and if there are any scars or birthmarks, they must be noted and described.

When a voter makes his mark on the registration book, he must make affidavit that he can not sign his name.

Books must be returned to the election board office after every day of registration, and printed copies of the registered voters must be furnished to each of the controlling committees within three days after they are printed.

Voters must give the date and year of their birth, instead of giving their ages.

When a voter is challenged, the judge of elections must ask the same questions answered when the voter registered, but in a different order and there must be no leading questions.

Every ballot given the voter must be returned to the clerk and deposited in the ballot box. Each ballot must be counted separately, as it is taken from the box and the ballots in the box must not be counted as to their numbers until each one has been called off to the clerk and the vote properly recorded.

MAYOR NAMES CRITIC FOR JOB

Sandusky's Chief Executive Ends a Wordy War.

Sandusky, O., Jan. 26.—Following the council's action in reducing the salaries of Director of Public Safety Claude B. DeWitt, and George Lehrer, Jr., superintendent of the city filtration plant, Director DeWitt resigned yesterday morning. Mayor Lehrer appointed John C. Hauser, and Hauser was on the job two hours later.

Hauser, secretary of the Sandusky Business Men's association, of the Sandusky lodge of Elks and a number of other organizations, is the third director since Mayor Lehrer assumed office about thirteen months ago.

The first director, William E. Guerin, Jr., formerly of Cleveland, resigned last November to become local attorney for the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern Railway company. DeWitt, who succeeded him, had been known as an "old guard" Republican and the action of the "progressive" mayor was believed to indicate that the two factions were trying to get together.

Last week the Business Men's association, at the suggestion of the mayor, lent its aid in an effort to re-enumerate the city's population. A meeting was announced for this afternoon, but while the representatives of the association, including Hauser, waited, the mayor and his advisers failed to appear. A controversy followed, in which the mayor and Hauser were principals. Until Wednesday it seemed that the two were anything but good friends.

Records Are Broken.

Paris, Jan. 26—All passenger-carrying aeroplane records were broken today when Roger Sommer flew with five passengers from Douzy to Romilly and return, a distance of thirteen miles. Sommer used a Farman biplane. Two of the passengers sat astride the skids.

Noted Briton Dead.

London, Jan. 26.—Sir Charles Dilke, Liberal member of parliament, holder of many government offices and one of the wealthiest mine owners in Great Britain, died today of heart failure. He was sixty-eight years old.

OFFERS FORTUNE FOR DAUGHTER

New York Importer Seeks His Lost Child.

GIRL IS MISSING SINCE DECEMBER

But Her Disappearance Is Kept from Public.

Missing Maid Is Graduate of Bryn Mawr—Starts from Home To Purchase New Holiday Dress and Nothing Is Known of Her Movements After She Stops at Confectionary Enroute to Dresmaker's.

New York, Jan. 26.—A fortune awaits the person who will give to Francis R. Arnold, millionaire importer, information that will lead to the finding of his daughter, Dorothy, twenty-five years of age, who has been missing from the palatial Arnold home in east Seventy-Ninth street since December 12. Through his attorneys and the police, Arnold anounced, today, that there was no limit to the reward that he would pay for the return of his daughter.

According to the family, there is no known reason for Miss Dorothy's strange disappearance. There is no romance connected with it and the family scouts the idea of suicide.

Miss Arnold is a graduate of Bryn Mawr. She received an allowance of $100 a month. On Saturday December 10 she gave a luncheon to a number of her girl friends at Sherry's. On the following Monday she left her home at 11:30 in the morning to buy a new dress for the holidays. Her mother wished to accompany her, but Dorothy dissuaded her. Investigation shows that the girl first went to a confectionery and then to a Fifth avenue book store. Nothing is known of her movements since.

The family kept the disappearance from the public until last night when members became convinced that only a general search could help them.

Flight Postponed.

Key West, Fla., Jan. 26.—A second postponement of the proposed aeroplane flight from this city to Havana by J. A. McCurdy was made necessary early today by a high wind. McCurdy said that if the wind abated he might attempt the flight this afternoon.

SHIP SUBSIDY IS DENOUNCED

Senator Shively Says It's a Waste of Time.

HOOSIER ATTACKS GALLINGER BILL

Says It Will Carry Coin Out of the Treasury.

Regarding United States Navigation Laws, Shively Says They Are Memorials to Stone-Blind Avarice and Stupid Folly, the Deadly Blight to Our Merchant Marine, Points Out Worst Feature.

Washington, Jan. 26.—Ship subsidy was denounced by Senator Shively, Democrat, of Indiana, in the senate, today, as a waste of public money. The decay of the American merchant marine, he said, was due not to the lack of bonus paid from the national treasury, but to the operation of an antiquated navigation code.

Referring to the Gallinger ocean mail service bill, designed to encourage the establishment of steamship lines to South America, Shively said:

"It is plain that the measure contemplates no increase of cargo or speed capacity in vessels carrying ocean commerce. The increase is only in parliamentary capacity and speed in carrying money out of the United States treasury. The amount of pay for a voyage is precisely the same whether the vessel carries only a lone picture of Mary of the vine-clad cottage or a 100 tons of mail.

Only a Memorial.

"We pay for the conveyance of a ton of letter mail in an American steamer $1,000 as against $700 if carried in a foreign steamer, and for a ton of printed mail $160 as against $90.

"All to what avail? For the year ended June 30, 1870, the proportion of foreign commerce carried in American bottoms was thirty-five per cent. For the year ending June 30, 1910, this proportion had fallen to eight per cent."

Shively referred to the United States navigation laws as "memorials to stone blind avarice and stupid folly—the deadly blight on our merchant marine." He pointed out as the worst feature of the laws the one prohibiting the placing of foreign-built ships in American registry.

STRONG OBJECTION TO CALEB POWERS

Macon Doesn't Want Him To Take Seat in Congress.

Washington, Jan. 26.—Asserting his belief that Caleb Powers has no right to the seat in congress to which he was elected last November because he "is a man three times convicted of murder, and now enjoys his liberty solely because of the pardon of a prejudiced executive," Representative Robert Bruce Macon, Democrat, of Arkansas, today declared that he would join with Democratic representatives from Kentucky to contest the seat of the alleged conspirator in the death of Governor Goebel.

"It seems to me that murder is a greater crime than bigamy," Macon declared today, "and yet the Republican members of the house apparently will permit Powers to take his seat—those same Republican members who objected to Representative Roberts, of Utah, and prevented him from taking his seat because he was a Mormon."

Officials Are Busy.

Washington, Jan. 26.—Officials of the state department, today, were busy rushing through the details of the announcement of the reciprocity treaty concluded with Canada, which was to be given out at Ottawa and at Washington at 4 o'clock this afternoon by international agreement.

Rebel Army Defeated.

Tegucigalpa, Honduras, Jan. 26.—The defeat of a revolutionary army by government troops was reported today. Colonel Velasquez, the insurgent leader, is said to have been killed in the battle which took place in the neighborhood of San Antonio.

Big Bill Passes.

Washington, Jan. 26.—The legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill, carrying $35,369,699, an increase of $116,000 over the bill as passed by the house, was taken up in the senate today.

Funk Is Gaining.

Des Moines, Ia., Jan. 26.—The senatorial deadlock continues in the legislature here today, Funk making a small gain.

NEW BISHOP CONSECRATED

CARDINAL GIBBONS TAKES ACTIVE PART

When Rev. Father Edward Kelly Is Consecrated.

Archbishop Ireland Preaches Consecration Sermon—Bishop Farrelly, of Cleveland; Bishop Hartley, of Columbus; Bishop Fallon, of London, and Other Noted Catholics Attend Ceremonies.

Ann Arbor, Mich., Jan. 26.—In the presence of a most distinguished gathering of Catholic dignitaries and clergy, Rev. Father Edward D. Kelly was, today, consecrated bishop of Cestra in St. Thomas Catholic church. Cardinal Gibbons, archbishop of Baltimore, took part, and Archbishop Ireland preached the consecration sermon. Among the others present were: Cardinal Gibbons, archbishop of Baltimore; Archbishop Henry Moeller, of Cincinnati; Archbishop Frederick Elis, of Marquette; Bishop John P. Farrelly, of Cleveland; Bishop H. P. Fallon, of London; Bishop Herman Alerding, of Fort Wayne, Indiana; Bishop Dennis O'Donaghue, of Louisville; Bishop C. P. Mass, of Covington, Kentucky; Bishop Thomas S Byrne, of Nashville; Bishop J. J. Hartley, of Columbus, Ohio; Bishop T. F. Hickey, of Rochester, New York; Bishop Coadjutor Chartrand, of Indianapolis; Bishop John S. Foley, of Detroit; Bishop-elect Joseph Schrembs, of Grand Rapids, and the Right Rev. Thomas J. Shahan, rector of the Catholic University of America.

Denies Illness.

Ann Arbor, Mich., Jan. 26.—Archbishop Ireland, of St. Paul, who is here to attend the consecration of Father Edward D. Kelly as a bishop, today strongly denied the report that he was taken ill shortly after arriving from St. Paul yesterday and was forced to take to his bed. According to the report, his illness resulted from the long railroad trip and from overwork.

LETTERS FLOOD THE LEAGUERS

New Organization Is Much Encouraged.

CONGRATULATIONS ARE POURING IN

Many Are Asking for Plans of Organization.

The Illness of Senator Bourne, President of Progressive Republican League, Tends To Check Progress, but Details Will Be Perfected in Few Days and Struggling Progressives Will Be Given Aid.

Washington, Jan. 26.—"At present the chief news about the Progressive Republican league is the number of letters and telegrams we are receiving," said Senator Bristow, Republican, of Kansas, today. "All extend their congratulations and a good many ask for plans for the organization of branch leagues in their states."

One of the things to be attended to, the senator said, was the appointment of a secretary. Then the details of the organization and the most effective means for extending aid to struggling progressives in various states would be perfected.

The illness of Senator Bourne, Republican, of Oregon, president of the league, who has been confined to his room for several days, with an aggravated case of the grippe, has tended to check progress. Bourne expected to be out today or tomorrow. As president he has been flooded with messages of encouragement.

Interesting Question.

A member of the house, who is not in the league, suggested, today, that results in a small number of states, in which the delegates to the national Republican convention in 1912 were elected directly by the people, might prove a serious obstacle to the Taft second term movement.

"Suppose the convention delegates in ten states," he said, "should be elected by the people and that the latter showed a general sentiment in opposition to the president. Would the country regard as the real choice of the party the candidates favored by these delegates or the favorites of the Taft delegates chosen in other states in the old way? It seems to me to be a most interesting question."

ROBBERS HOLD UP LOS ANGELES CAR

Passengers of Crowded Car Hand Over Their Money.

Los Angeles, Calif., Jan. 26.—Roy Fox, nineteen, is under arrest in a hospital here, today, as the result of a regular "wild west" hold-up on a crowded street car last night.

Two masked men boarded a Beach suburban car on the outskirts of San Monica. With a wild yell, they began firing through the roof of the car, ordering all the passengers to hold up their hands. One of the men then forced the motorman to pass his hat through the car, collecting the passengers' jewelry and valuables. There were twenty persons on the car.

Harry L. Mitchell, of San Monica refused to give up his money and was shot through the neck. Herbert Harlan, another passenger, drew his revolver and fired one shot which struck Fox. The bandits emptied their pistols at Harlan, one shot striking his watch, but not injuring him

Both the bandits leaped from the car and escaped, but Fox was arrested when he tried to secure medical attention.

THE ROOSEVELT AND BALDWIN ROW ENDS

Connecticut Governor Accepts Colonel's Explanation.

New York, Jan. 26.—The controversy between Colonel Roosevelt and Governor Baldwin, of Connecticut, growing out of Roosevelt's criticism during the last campaign of Governor, then Judge, Baldwin's decision in the Hoxie case, is today at an end.

Following the receipt of a long letter from Roosevelt to Baldwin, in which the writer set forth the absence of any personal animosity in his campaign utterances and his grounds for criticising the decision, Governor Baldwin has answered that he accepts Roosevelt's explanation and has decided to let the matter drop.

Rate Is Reduced.

London, Jan. 26.—Despite the stringency in the money market the directors of the Bank of England, today, reduced the bank's discount rate from 4½ to four per cent.

ROOSEVELT ON NEW LEAGUE

Colonel Favors Progressive Organization.

HE COMMENTS ON LEAGUE'S PRINCIPLES

And Delves Deep into the New Platform.

In Concluding, Roosevelt Declares His Belief in Adopting Every Device for Popular Government Which in Theory Is Good and When Practice Bears Out the Theory—Touches Recall Lightly.

New York, Jan 25.—That Colonel Teodore Roosevelt approves of the platform of the National Republican Progressive league is shown by an article by him in the current issue of the Outlook, of which he is the contributing editor.

Colonel Roosevelt's name, however, does not appear in the call sent out by the new organization. In explanation his friends say that if he had participated in the movement it would have been hailed at once as a third term propaganda and much of its usefulness destroyed.

That the colonel is in favor of the things for which the organization stands is proven conclusively by the Outlook article which is over his signature. He discusses these suggestions which are a part of the platform of the new organization:

Drastic laws to prevent the corrupt use of money in politics.

Election of United States senators by direct vote.

Direct primaries for the nomination of elective officers.

Direct election of delegates to national conventions, the voter to express his choice for president on the ballot for delegate.

The introduction of the initiative, referendum and recall.

The latter is the one suggestion which the colonel handles in a somewhat conservative fashion. Speaking of the recall, he says:

Regarding Recall.

"As regards the recall, it is sometimes very useful, but it contains undoubted possibilities of mischief, and, of course, it is least necessary in the case of short term elective officers. There is, however, unquestionably a very real argument to be made for it as regards officers elected or appointed for life."

Colonel Roosevelt admits that this latter class is the judiciary and promises an article on this topic later. So far as the initiative and referendum are concerned, he says:

"Where popular interest is sufficiently keen, as it has been in the case of certain amendments to the national constitution at various times in the past, we see what is practically the initiative under another name. I believe that it would be a good thing to have the principle of the initiative and referendum applied in most of our states, always provided that it be safeguarded as to prevent its being used either wantonly or in a spirit of levity."

In conclusion, Roosevelt says: "I believe in adopting every device for popular government which is in theory good and when the practice bears out the theory. It is often impossible to establish genuine popular rule and get rid of privilege, without the use of new devices to meet new needs. I think that this is the situation which now confronts us in the United States, and that the adoption in principle of the program on which the progressives, especially in the West, are tending to unite, offers us the best chance to achieve the desired result."

ANOTHER CHAPTER IN LYTLE BIGAMY CASE

Mysterious Box Is Sold at Public Auction.

Another chapter in the history of Walter C Lytle, who promoted the Lake Motor Improvement company in Cleveland and managed to find several victims, among whom were Councilman Don E J. Brockett and Sands K Gorham, of this city, was given in the Forest City, Tuesday, when a large drygoods box containing property listed under the name of Mrs. W. C Lytle was sold at public auction by the Fireproof Storage company.

With the sale of the box developed another story. The auctioneer didn't advertise the property as belonging to one of the numerous wives of Lytle, who is now serving a ten-year sentence on the convict farm near Jackson Mississippi, because he admitted having four wives. The auctioneer smiled a little when the box was shoved upon the platform, but that was all. J P Gager, president of the storage company, took all possible means to keep the particular one a secret. He refused to tell who bought the property or tell how much was paid for it. The mysterious box had been in storage seventeen months. Many attempts were made to locate one of the four alleged wives without result. Now Lytle's victims are wondering what the box contained.

Born to Mr and Mrs. B. V. Davis, of Nye street, Sunday evening, a daughter.

COLUMBUS PIANO DEALER ARRESTED

George B. Day Is Charged with Embezzlement.

Columbus, O., Jan. 25.—George B. Day, one of the best known piano dealers in Columbus, was arrested this afternoon by Detective Norris and lodged in the city prison, on an affidavit charging him with the embezzlement, January 20, of $2,000 from the John Church company, a piano concern of Cincinnati.

Day is charged with having collected on pianos consigned to him and to have kept the money. The affidavit was signed by Arthur C. Vaughn, who came to Columbus from Cincinnati several days ago and made an unsuccessful effort to settle with Day.

MARION STEAM SHOVEL PURCHASES MORE LAND

Buys Forty-Three Acres in the West End.

REAL ESTATE DEAL FINISHED WEDNESDAY

The Property Is Purchased With a View to the Needs of Future Rather Than of the Present—The Expansion of Company Helps Real Estate Affairs in West End.

A $25,000 real estate deal was closed, Wednesday, when the Marion Steam Shovel company purchased from Darius Uncapher forty-three acres of land adjoining its property to the south. The deed of transfer was recorded in the office of County Recorder Edward F. Tittelbaugh, late Wednesday afternoon.

The newly-purchased land is bounded on the north by Union street, on the west by the Nypano Railway company's tracks, on the south by a tract owned by C. S. and S. B. Lippincott and on the east by Uncapher avenue. When asked if additional extensive improvements were contemplated in the near future, Treasurer Frank A. Huber, of the Marion Steam Shovel company, declared:

"No. The land adjoins our property and we thought we had better buy it."

Mr. Huber said that the company owned altogether about seventy acres, including the land just purchased.

Real estate men predict a healthy boom in land values in the West End as a result of the continued expansion of the Marion Steam Shovel company.

PHILLIPS DIES FROM WOUNDS

Coughing Starts Hemorrhage of the Lungs.

ASSASSIN'S MOTIVE IS NOW REVEALED

Author's Writings Displease the Violinist.

Goldsborough, the Musician Who Kills Phillips, Keeps Diary in Which Victim's Name Appears Frequently with Unfavorable Comment on His Works of Fiction.

New York, Jan. 25.—Death relieved the sufferings of David Graham Phillips, the novelist, who was shot six times by Fitzhugh C. Goldsborough as he was entering the Princeton club. Mr. Phillips had been vomiting blood during most of the day which symptom told the physicians that the perforation in the lung caused by a bullet which had entered the right chest and had passed out of the body near the left shoulder blade, was not healing. The end came during a severe fit of coughing.

More evidence showing that Goldsborough held enmity toward Mr. Phillips was learned, but at best no one seemed able to piece enough of this together to account for the crime.

It was learned also that almost a year ago Goldsborough went to the city hall to complain to Mayor Gaynor about persons annoying him. During this visit the violinist mentioned to the mayor's secretary, Mr. Adamson, the name of David Graham Phillips, but not with any especial show of animosity.

Had Visions of Detectives.

Detectives were trailing him, he complained to the mayor's secretary, and people continually were throwing pebbles against the windows of his bedroom in a hotel in West Eleventh street. Goldsborough also told Mr. Adamson at this time something to the effect that Phillips had written a novel in which he had taken the violinist as the hero. In telling this to Mr. Adamson, Goldsborough did not express any resentment against the novelist for doing so.

From a diary in which Goldsborough had been making entries daily since the beginning of the year until last Sunday, it was learned at the district attorney's office that the violinist had begun the year by making entries of a rambling nature about Phillips. The name "David Graham Phillips" appears in the diary. Beneath Mr. Phillips' name Goldsborough had written the sentences, "He is my enemy" and "He is an enemy to society."

Also from the sentences scribbled over a period of 22 days it appears that Goldsborough had read Mr. Phillips' writings and that some of them had displeased him. It was gathered that he was particularly displeased with intimations some place in Phillips' books that women of wealth and social position smoke cigarets and drink too much.

BOARD BILL RUNS TWENTY-SIX YEARS

Star Boarder Moves and Landlord Wants His Pay.

New York, Jan. 25.—Twenty-six years is long enough for any board bill to run, in the opinion of Joseph Cragen, a Bowery resident, who has sued Jacob Cohen, formerly his star boarder, for $28,430 for twenty-six years' board and keep. Cragen said he let the bill run on from year to year under the belief that Cohen would draw his check at any time for the full amount. The other day, however, Cohen changed boarding houses, and, according to Cragen, overlooked the small item of the twenty-six years' bill.

Cohen says he helped Cragen financially on a number of occasions and "wasn't supposed to pay board."

DISASTROUS EXPLOSION

Pennsylvania Colliery Scene of Accident.

MINERS ARE HURLED IN EVERY DIRECTION

And Ten May Die from Their Injuries.

Spark from a Mine Motor Causes the Ignition of Keg of Powder Carried by One of Fifteen Men as They Ride Along Underground Passage. A Rescue Crew Is Immediately Pressed into Service.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Jan. 25.—A spark from a mine motor in the No. 8 shaft in the No. 9 colliery of the Pennsylvania Coal company in Pittston early today caused the ignition of a keg of powder carried by one of fifteen miners, and resulted in death or severe injury to the entire number. The explosion occurred while the men were on their way to work. Most of them carried a keg of powder and boarded a mine electric motor to carry them along the underground passageway near their chambers. They had gone but a few hundred yards when the explosion occurred. The men were hurled off the truck and dashed against the sides of the gangway.

Those who escaped serious burning were injured by their contact with the sharp edges of coal as a result of the concussion of the air coincident with the explosion.

The alarm was sent to the surface, and the rescue crew pressed into service. The men were found strewn along the gangway, moaning and groaning with the seared flesh hanging from the necks, arms and faces.

They were quickly rolled in blankets and carried to the surface and rushed to their homes or hospitals.

At the Pittston hospital, where there are seven victims, it was reported this afternoon that only two recoveries are expected. It is estimated that the fatalities will reach at least ten.

GEORGE RHULAND IS AGAIN IN CUSTODY

His Bondsman Asks To Be Released from Liability.

RHULAND MUST NOW ANSWER TWO CHARGES

Stranger Arrested Here and Taken to Bellefontaine Proves He Is Not the Man Wanted—I. Bender Pays Fine of $100 and Costs—John Seitz Arranging To Pay His Fine.

George Rhuland was arrested, Monday afternoon, by Officer Cusick to be held for his appearance in the court of common pleas. Rhuland was arrested, July 31, on a charge of intoxication. At the time of his arrest he was employed by F. R Saiter. Rhuland entered a plea of not guilty to the charge and his case was carried to the common pleas court, Saiter giving a bond of $50 for Rhuland's release pending the decision of the higher court. The case is still pending in the court. Rhuland has been discharged by Saiter and the latter asked to be released from the bond. Rhuland was therefore arrested. At the time he was taken in charge by the officer, Monday, he was under the influence of liquor and a charge of intoxication was slated against him. He entered a plea of not guilty when arraigned before the mayor and his hearing was set for Tuesday evening at a time convenient for the arresting officer.

George Rhuland, who pleaded not guilty to a charge of intoxication before the mayor, Tuesday morning, appeared, Tuesday evening, and changed his plea to guilty and a fine of five dollars was assessed against him. Rhuland is being held at the prison in default of a bond of $50 for his appearance before the court of common pleas on a charge of intoxication, having carried the case up from the mayor's court last August. In case he is unable to furnish the bond, he will be taken to jail.

The man taken from a fast freight by Officer Thompson, Saturday, and turned over to the Bellefontaine police who sought his arrest on a charge of jumping his bond at Lewiston, Illinois, was released a short time after being taken to Bellefontaine. The man proved conclusively that he was not John Oppy, the man wanted, although he answered the description even to the detail of a missing finger.

I. Bender, who was fined $100 and costs in the mayor's court on a charge of keeping a place where intoxicating liquors were sold or kept for sale, and which decision was confirmed in the higher courts, appeared before the mayor Monday afternoon and made a settlement by tendering a check for $113.13, which covered the fine and costs. John Seitz who was fined $200 and costs on a similar charge, called on the mayor, Monday afternoon, and announced that he was making arrangements and would be prepared to settle in a few days.

ESTLACK & SCUHRLIE SELL THEIR BUSINESS

William N. Crouso Buys the Business Tuesday Evening.

Estlack & Schurlie, who for a number of years have formed a partnership in the wallpaper and decorating business, and have been located over the Rapp harness store, on south Main street, disposed of their business, Tuesday, to William N. POSITION OF KING GEORGE

Morgantic Marriage Scandal Is Brought Out.

KING MAKES AN EMPHATIC DENIAL

Of Sedition Charges Made by the Liberator.

Agent of Anarchist Paper, the Liberator, Says He Can Not Be Convicted of Libel Unless King George Goes on Stand and Denies Morganatic Marriage with Daughter of Admiral in Malta in 1890.

London, Jan. 25.—Unless King George himself takes the stand and denies that he contracted a morganatic marriage in Malta in 1890 with the daughter of a British admiral, Edward F. Mylius, London agent of the anarchist publication, Liberator, does not see how he can be convicted of seditious libel in dragging up this old scandal about the king in the columns of the Liberator.

Mylius decided, today, to plead guilty to the charge of writing the article complained of, assert the truthfulness of the statements made and to ask the king to appear in court and swear to whether the alleged marriage was legally performed. It will be impossible to compel the king to appear, owing to his constitutional immunity from subpoena service. If George takes advantage of this immunity, which he will do, Mylius believes the court will have to find him guiltless.

The case will be called about the middle of February, before the high court.

Mylius was arrested last December and the London distribution of the Liberator, which is published in Paris, was prohibited. Edward Holton James, a Harvard graduate and nephew of the novelist, is the editor of the Liberator.

Through his secretary, Sir Arthur Biggs, the king has denied the morganatic marriage.

OBITUARY.

Brady—John C. Brady was born June 26, 1855, in Big Island township, Marion county, and departed this life December 3, 1910, at the age of fifty-five years, five months and seven days. He was the oldest child of Asa and Harriett Brady, and the first out of a family of nine children to be called to the great beyond. January 31, 1878, he was united in marriage to Fannie C Brady, and to this union were born six children, two sons having preceded him in infancy to the great white throne. Mr. Brady was converted and united with the Presbyterian church, which is now known as the Union church, February 2, 1896, through God's handservant the Rev. O. L. Myers, and of which church he was still a member, and while he resided in that vicinity was always ready to lend a helping hand, but, owing to the fact of so much sickness, in his home, after moving to this city, he felt his service was first needed in his home, and for that reason after being kept so close at home, he felt somewhat timid in taking God's work anew among so many strangers, but to the very end, he was always ready to lend a helping hand in sickness or death. Mr. Brady was a member of the Junior Order of American Mechanics, and a man who was held very high in that order. He had the esteemed honor of passing through all the chairs, and for which he received several emblems. Besides the widow and four children, Mrs. Otis L. Boger and Harry T. Brady, of Portland, Oregon, Miss Iscah and Master Burrel, who reside at home, he is survived by an aged mother and sisters, Mrs W. A. DeLong and Mrs. J. E. Gilbert, of this city; Mrs. Catherine Lee, of Spring Arbor, Michigan; and brothers, George K. Brady, of Piketon; A. L. Brady, of Meeker; M. C. Brady, of Rushsylvania; Edward Brady, of LaRue, and B. W. Brady, of Louisville, Kentucky. A host of the relatives and friends mourn the loss of a loving husband, father and friend. * * *

FAITH NOT SHAKEN BUT IS CONFIRMED

Official Report Soon To Be Had for Norman M Thomas

The following communication from New York under date of January 25 is wholly self explanatory and of interest to many readers of the Star

Editor Star May I through your columns ask those of your readers who may have been interested in certain statement regarding my religious belief to suspend judgment until New York Presbytery publishes its answer to the protest signed by eight ministers none of whom is in active pastorate

Owing to the rules of Presbytery I am not myself at liberty to answer the charges personally but I hope to send you an authorized answer from the Presbytery after its next meeting

Meanwhile may I simply say that while I may belong to the liberal wing of the church I have and cherish in my studies no reference to shake the much to common faith in Christ and in his salvation and in its power when sincerely preached and truly lived to redeem the world

SAVES A FAMILY BY PREMONITION

A Peculiar Case of a Sidney Physician.

DR. W. A. FRANCE TO BE ARRESTED

Columbus Doctor Is Charged with Misusing Mails.

The Trap Shooters Pick Columbus for the Grand American Handicap for 1911—Clevelander Discovers Process of Hardening Copper—A Farmer Meets Horrible Death Near Circleville.

Sidney, O., Jan. 26. — A peculiar premonition which came to Dr. W. H. Lashley probably saved the lives of four persons. Dr. Lashley was called to the home of John Blue and treated Mrs Blue and a Miss Ailes for a peculiar form of headache. After he had finished his day's rounds he began thinking of the odd symptoms exhibited by the headache patients and decided to call up the Blue home. When he could raise no one he dressed and drove down there and had to break into the house with an ax. Inside he found Mr. and Mrs Blue, their son Leonard and Miss Ailes unconscious from escaping gas. They were almost gone

Dr. France to Be Arrested.

Columbus, O., Jan. 26.—Dr. W. A. France, former president of the Cleveland Oil company of Los Angeles, Cal., will be arrested as soon as a warrant charging misuse of the mails, which was issued in the United States court at Cincinnati, reaches this city. The doctor is sick in bed at the present time.

Trap Shooters Pick Columbus.

Columbus, O., Jan. 26.—Secretary J. Y. Bassell of the Columbus chamber of commerce announced that this city had secured the Grand American handicap for 1911. This is the greatest trap event of the country and brings 1,000 crack shots from all over the country for a week's stay.

Says He Can Harden Copper.

Cleveland, O., Jan. 26.—Dr. George D. Swaine, who has spent 20 years in investigation, claims to have discovered the long lost art of hardening copper. He says he has been able to produce copper ingots with a certain alloy which resist the file and lathe.

Meets Horrible Death.

Circleville, O., Jan. 26. — Charles Bowman, 43, farmer, whose body was whirled around the revolving shaft of a corn crusher several times, is dead. His skull was crushed and his thigh broken in three places.

Ends Life on Grave.

Canton, O., Jan. 26.—Seeking a spot among the graves in St. John's cemetery, Joseph Esner, 28, a former United States cavalryman, shot himself to death with a rusty revolver.

Judge Stricken on Bench.

Zanesville, O., Jan. 26.—Judge W. H. Johnson, common pleas court, was taken sick on the bench and ordered to Florida. All jury cases are postponed.

Bury Phillips Tomorrow.

New York, Jan. 26.—Funeral services for David Graham Phillips will be held at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, in St. George's church, Bishop Greer officiating. The pallbearers will be Senator Beveridge, Joseph H. Sears, Robert W. Chambers, Arthur W. Little, George Horace Lorimer, Otto Carmichael, John O'Hara Cosgrave and Samuel G. Blythe. It is expected that the coffin will be left for a time in the receiving vault of the Marble cemetery until Mrs. Carolyn Frevert, Mr. Phillips' sister, decides upon a permanent burial place.

JUDGE SUMMONED IN VOTE SCANDAL

Kimbrough Says He Will Tell All He Knows.

Danville, Ill., Jan. 26.—Vermilion county's grand jury investigation of vote traffic took on new life, and involved the instigator, Judge E. R. E. Kimbrough. In addition to Judge Kimbrough half a score of the most prominent Democratic politicians in Speaker Joseph G Cannon's home county have been drawn into the inquisition.

Judge Kimbrough was summoned to testify before the grand jury which he himself charged to make the investigation, and announced that he will unreservedly tell all he knows.

H. Martin will be a unique witness. He is perhaps the only man in Danville who, although not a politician, is able to give direct testimony regarding the identity of men who have accepted money for their votes. According to the merchant's own story, he saw the voters paid off in the now famous "election office" in the second precinct of the Seventh ward, at the November election. He obtained his view of the transaction by peeping through a knothole.

Deadlock Continues.

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 26.—The legislature deadlocked again today in joint session over the election of a United States senator.

THE SCHENK JURY IS STILL HUNG UP

Comes Out for Information and Returns to Jury Room.

Wheeling, W. Va., Jan. 26.—At noon, today, nineteen hours after they retired and after nearly seven hours of actual deliberation, the jurors in the Schenk poisoning case apparently were nowhere near a verdict. Court was adjourned until 1:30 p. m. The only indication of the trend of the discussion was when a note came this morning from the jury room to Judge Jordan, asking for the testimony of Florence Coleman, Mrs. Schenk's colored laundress, and a state's witness. The court called the jurors in and ordered the stenographer's notes of the testimony transcribed.

The jury retired at 2 p. m., after the transcribed testimony of Florence Coleman was read to them following the request made this morning for the evidence.

Three jurors in particular listened attentively to the reading of the testimony of the negress employed by Mrs. Schenk as a laundress, leaning forward in their chairs

Mrs Schenk also followed the words of the stenographer closely, exchanging words with her attorneys.

GIVES EXPERIENCE IN TOGA HUNTING

Hanley, of Ohio, Takes Hand in the New York Contest.

Albany, Jan 26—The seventh joint ballot for United States senator gave Sheehan 85 votes and Shepard, his nearest competitor, 11, necessary to choice, 97. There is no change whatever in the deadlock

Governor Dix has received many telegrams from Democrats interested in the presidential campaign next year urging him to indicate a preference for Sheehan for candidate of the joint caucus The governor has received also many messages requesting him to stand pat. One message was from Edward L. Hanley, chairman of the Democratic state committee of Ohio, in which it was stated that Mr. Hanley was only defeated by one vote for United States senator in the Democratic caucus at Columbus, and yet the minority bowed manfully to the will of the majority of one and made the election of Atlee Pomerene unanimous.

The governor is to be urged to hand out the telegrams he has received both for and against Mr. Sheehan.

LABOR LEADERS ARE CONVICTED

Three Accused of Tampering with Interstate Commerce.

New Orleans, Jan. 26.—Organized labor felt the restraining force of the Sherman anti-trust law when a jury in the United States circuit court here returned a verdict of guilty against members of the New Orleans dock and cotton council, charged with conspiracy to interfere with foreign commerce It was argued by the government's attorney that when these men conspired to strike two years ago and tie up the port they interfered with interstate commerce.

The convicted men are James Byrns, former president of the council and at present state labor commissioner of Louisiana; Philip Pearsaw, former president of the local cal wheelers' union, and U. S. Swan, former president of the longshoremen's union. Swan and Pearsaw are negroes. Sentence has been deferred

WIRELESS HUNTING GUNBOAT, WHEELING

Explosion Is Reported To Have Occurred on Vessel.

Washington, Jan. 26.—Officials of the bureau of navigation strongly discredit reports widely circulated today that there had been an explosion on the gunboat, Wheeling. They asserted that the vessel was out of reach by wireless and that, as her apparatus is short ranged, there was no cause for surprise in the fact that she was not reported by wireless last night.

They said she would arrive at Guantanamo late tomorrow. An attempt will be made late today to reach the Wheeling through the wireless station at Key West.

The wife of Captain Carlo B. Brittain, of the Wheeling, lives in Richmond, Kentucky. She is critically ill of typhoid fever.

NEWARK RIOTER'S TRIAL PROGRESSES

Defense Attacks Anti-Saloon League Detectives.

Newark, O., Jan. 26.—The defense in the William McKinley murder trial spent today trying to discredit the Anti-Saloon league "detectives" whose raid caused the lynching of Carl Etherington—participation in which is charged against the prisoner.

Evidence was introduced to show that practically the entire lot had been street car "strike-breakers," some in Columbus and some in Philadelphia.

The court, today, decided to try Clarence next. He is a young glass worker, held in jail under a murder indictment since July. His case is set for February 14

LEGISLATOR IS BADLY NEEDED

Telephone Interests Want Him To Introduce Bill.

CLEVELAND MAN HAS UNIQUE BILL

A Montgomery County Solon Airs Views Emphatically.

Regarding the Stockwell Bill's Platform Ceton Says He Doesn't Care What It May Contain—Lieutenant Governor Is Offered What Is Considered an Insult—Non-Partisan Bill Is Again Attacked.

Columbus, O., Jan. 26.—The telephone merger bill has been in Columbus for nearly two weeks, but its authors and backers, the Bell and United States Long Distance Telephone interests, can't find a suitable legislator to introduce it.

They had Representative John E. Canty, of Hocking, picked to introduce the measure in the house, but Canty has backed down.

Senator Yount, of Darke county, was asked to introduce it in the senate, but friends inside and outside of the legislature advised against it. Both Canty and Yount voted against the Elson bill last winter, and the telephone interests have decided that they must get some one who fought the bill last winter.

The authors of the bill refuse to insert a provision that will prohibit the watering of stocks and overcapitalization "Such matters are none of the public's business," say the telephone lobbyists.

Clevelander's Bill.

Columbus, O., Jan. 26—Boards of reviews in Ohio cities will become a thing of the past and scores of politicians out of jobs if a bill introduced in the house, late Wednesday, by Representative Edwards, of Cleveland, becomes a law. The measure provides that boards of county assessors shall perform all the duties of assessing property.

Under the Edwards bill, boards of review would pass out of existence on the first Monday in January, 1912 Before that a board of assessors composed of three members will be elected in each county. This board will assess properties, hear complaints and perform all the functions now undertaken by boards of equalization.

Edwards said, today, that his bill would prove a remedy for practically all of the assessing evils that have worried most cities for years. It would bring about yearly appraisements of real estate and do away with much of the red tape which now clogs the tax machinery.

Cetone Is Emphatic.

Columbus, O., Jan 26—Wednesday, in refusing to accept the bill of Senator Stockwell, of Cuyahoga county, for the direct election of United States senators, Cetone, of Montgomery county, said:

"I was nominated before the platform was drawn, and I don't give a d—— what it contains. I polled 500 votes more than Harmon in my district. That platform isn't worrying me very much."

"What the h—— do the people care about the platform? There are 25,000 voters in your district that can't read it," he said to Representative Krauss.

Hoffman, who opposed the bill, but would not vote to bury it in committee, said. "The only salvation of any government is parties. When I ain't a Democrat, I want to be a Republican"

Stockwell said later: "The floor of the senate is the proper forum for the discussion of the bill, anyway The committee can be relieved of the bill by a majority vote."

Pomerene Insulted.

Columbus, O., Jan 26 - The Ohio senate, today, offered what is considered an insult to Lieutenant Governor Pomerene, by refusing to pass a resolution permitting him to appoint a stenographer. This is said to be the first time in the history of the legislature that a lieutenant governor has been shown such a discourtesy.

Every Republican present voted against the resolution Three Democrats were absent, so the resolution received the votes of only sixteen Democrats, two less than the required majority. The excuse of the Republicans was that the Democrats had not kept faith with them in the distribution of senate jobs.

Second Attack.

Columbus, O., Jan. 26 —The second senate attack on the non-partisan judiciary bill failed this morning. Johnson, of Cincinnati, moved for a reconsideration of the vote by which the bill was passed. He was informed that the bill had already gone to the house. Bader, of Cincinnati, moved that the house be asked to return it. Reynolds, of Cuyahoga said that the house committee had already voted to report it favorably, and moved to table Bader's motion, which was tabled by a vote of seventeen to fifteen, all the Republicans voting no.

Crosser's Measure.

Columbus, O., Jan. 26.—Representative Crosser, of Cuyahoga county, has a bill aimed at the present system of selecting jury. It will embody provisions calculated to prevent any individual serving on a jury more than one term in a certain number of years. Crosser seeks to abolish the professional juryman.

Sunday Baseball.

Columbus, O., Jan. 26.—The house committee on cities has recommended for passage the Greeves bill to permit Sunday baseball. It will likely reach a vote next Tuesday. Chances are said to be in favor of its passage in the house.

REVIVAL MEETINGS AT CALVARY CHURCH

Rev. John Hobson Preaches a Fine Sermon.

The revival meetings in progress at the Calvary Evangelical church this week have been largely attended and the interest manifested has been unusual. Rev. John Hobson preached a very earnest and helpful sermon, Tuesday night, after which several bowed at the altar.

Wednesday evening, Rev J. W. Heininger preached a very instructive and unusually helpful sermon, directed chiefly to Sunday-school and church workers and to the young people. His subject was "Choose Life." In response to his appeal for sinners to yield to Christ nearly every unsaved person in the congregation went to the altar

The church is becoming thoroughly aroused and believes that the meetings have not yet reached their highest points of interest Services will begin tonight and Friday night at 7.15 o'clock. There will be a twenty-minute song service At Wednesday night's service a beautiful song was rendered by Misses Ina, Ava and Ruth Klinefelter.

Jury To Report.

The grand jury which convened, Tuesday morning, will report Friday morning at 9 o'clock

MUCH SOUGHT BY WASHINGTON HOSTESSES ON ACCOUNT OF HER BEAUTY AND WIT.

Miss B. Richardson, daughter of Congressman Richardson, of Alabama, is one of the beauties of Washington. She is much in demand for social affairs.

BRIBERY STORY WILL NOT DOWN

West Virginia Legislators Are Aroused.

REPUBLICANS LEAVE THE HALL IN A BODY

The Democrats Stay and Do Business.

They Elect Chilton and Watson to United States Senate Despite the Charge That Money Is Used in Caucus—Candidates Appear and Deny That They Pay Money To Secure the Nomination.

Charleston, W. Va., Jan. 26.—Delegate Moore, Republican, at the session of the legislature offered a resolution asking for the postponement of the election of senators for fifteen days until charges of bribery could be investigated. The resolution also stated it was rumored that Delegate Shock had been given $1,000 and was promised $1,500 more, and that Shock had shown the money he had received to William G. Bennett and John W Davis. He asked immediate consideration, but this was voted down. A motion was then made to compel all of the members present to vote, whereupon the Republicans left the hall in a body.

With only Democrats present, Senator Bland bolted the caucus nominations by attacking Watson's Democracy, and then read a letter purporting to contain Shock's statement in which he admitted having received the bribe.

This letter explicitly charged that the money had been received and exhibited He thereupon nominated Thomas E Hodges for the long term, while Delegate Hubbard named William R. Thompson.

Amid great excitement the vote was then taken and resulted: Chilton, 71, Hodges, 3; Thompson, 1; J. W. Davis, 1. Chilton was then declared elected for the long term.

Democrats Return.

Several Democrats who had balloted previously returned, claiming the bribery charges had no basis. When Watson was nominated for the short term, his name being presented by Delegate Woods, Delegate Hubbard nominated Lewis Bennett. This vote resulted. Watson, 70; Bennett, 5; Davis, 2.

Immediately after this announcement that they had been elected, Messrs Chilton and Watson appeared and made addresses each declaring in turn that they had not paid any money to secure their nominations and that they courted the fullest investigation. They did not want any cloud on their titles, and if it could not be shown beyond a reasonable doubt that the charges were unfounded they would decline to serve. The compromise proposition has been abandoned, the arbitrators having failed to reach an agreement, and the Republicans now say they will absent themselves during the session.

APPOINTMENTS ARE SENT TO SENATE

Governor Harmon Sends List to Senate Wednesday.

Columbus, O., Jan 26 -- Governor Harmon, yesterday afternoon, sent to the senate the following appointments, which must be approved by that body:

Christ Pabst, of Butler county, as member of the state tax commission, to serve out the term of William B Poland, resigned, expiring February 13.

W. G Farnsworth, of Lucas county, as member of the state board of agriculture to serve out the term of William Miller, resigned, expiring February 1, and for the full term of two years

C. W. McFarland, of Morrow county, as a member of the state board of agriculture for the term of two years, beginning February 1.

The governor also transmitted to the senate the recommendation of State Highway Commissioner Wonders, relative to the improvement of the state's roads

PITTSBURG AND LAKE ERIE CANAL WORKERS

Delegation Goes to Washington To Push Project.

Washington, Jan 26 A delegation interested in the construction of a canal from a point near Pittsburg to Lake Erie appeared before the senate committee on commerce today It is proposed that congress create a canal district comprising thirty-five counties in Pennsylvania and Ohio to be traversed by the canal These counties are to sell bonds in order to raise money to pay the cost of the waterway

The route of the proposed canal is from the junction of the Ohio and Beaver rivers in Pennsylvania, by way of the Beaver and Mahoning rivers to a point near Niles, Ohio, thence to a suitable location for a terminal on the shore of Lake Erie between the Pennsylvania and Ohio state line and the mouth of the Grand river.

Pall Mall poplin is a finely ribbed thin silk offered for the one-piece frock.

MOTORING ACROSS DARK CONTINENT

Five Englishmen Start on 5,800-Mile Trip Today.

London, Jan 26 - Five Englishmen left London, today, for Capetown, South Africa, from which point they expect to motor the entire length of the dark continent to Cairo

Within two weeks after their departure from Capetown, a German party will follow in automobiles by a slightly different route.

The Englishmen are Captain Bede Bentley, who has already driven an automobile through Somaliland, and Abyssinia; Captain Kelsey, an African big game hunter, John Henderson, a newspaper man, a photographer, and a mechanician

The Englishmen's route will be by way of the Transval, British Central Africa, Lake Tanganyika and British East Africa to Fashoda, Khartoum, and Cairo The distance is 5,800 miles and Captain Bentley expects to cover it in 120 days

The English expedition has the encouragement of the colonial office and the British South Africa company The German party is subsidized by Germany for $50,000

OREGON PLAN IS TO BE SHELVED

Committee Indefinitely Postpones Stockwell's Bill.

SENATOR DEAN WILL NOT RUSH HIS BILL

He Doesn't Wish To Appear Hasty in Premises.

William T. Smith, of Marion, Presents Governor's One Per Cent. Tax Proposition in the House. Harmon Names Members of State Agricultural Board—State Treasurer Prepares New Measure.

Columbus, O., Jan 26—Steps toward the adoption in Ohio through the Stockwell bill of a modification of the Oregon plan for the nomination of candidates for the United States senate by public vote were checked when the senate committee on privileges and elections voted to indefinitely postpone consideration of the bill.

Contrary to predictions, the Dean bill amending the Rose law was not made a special order for Tuesday, but was placed on the calendar in regular order. Senator Dean announced that he did not want to appear hasty in the matter.

The governor sent to the senate the state road laws codification as prepared by the state highway commissioner and attorney general. He also sent to the senate the appointment of C W. McFarland of Galion to succeed himself as member of the state board of agriculture, and of G. W Farnsworth of Lucas county to succeed William Miller of Gypsum. Farnsworth is a Democrat and McFarland a Republican.

In the senate the following bills were introduced:

Mr. Crawford of Carroll—Providing that railroads carrying coal for shippers shall weigh it at starting point and destination, and if the shrinkage exceeds 1 per cent they shall be liable for the loss.

Aimed at Loan Sharks.

Mr. Haas of Delaware—Providing that salary loan sharks shall secure licenses from the secretary of state, fee $250. Penalty for failure to do so, a fine of from $50 to $500.

Mr. Doster of Highland—A bill to provide a uniform bill of lading law.

In the house, Representative Smith of Marion presented the administration's 1 per cent tax bill, which limits the tax levy to 10 mills on the dollar.

Judge Dilly of the state tax commission has worked out a feature in the proposed 1 per cent tax bill, creating a "budget commission." By this plan the annual budget of city and county will be made up in the same manner as heretofore, but will have to pass through the hands of a commission before it is accepted. This commission will act as a safety valve in the matter of city and county expenditures. In case any department asks too much or such a sum as would likely exceed the amount available, the budget committee will cut the amount down according to the amount of money which will be available

State Treasurer D. S Creamer has prepared a bill, which will be introduced by Senator Cetone of Montgomery county, to better safeguard the loaning of the state's money and also to enable the state to reap he benefit of its highest earning capacity. The most important feature of the bill is that it makes it mandatory to let out the state's money to the highest bidder.

MEXICAN REBELS EVACUATE TOWN

Presence of Federal Troops Sends Them Back to Hills.

El Paso, Jan 26 Five rebels took the town of San Ignacio, south of Juarez, but when the troops of the Fourteenth cavalry went down there from Juarez the rebels fled to the hills, and the municipal officials, who had been jailed by the rebels, are again in control, guarded by troops.

United State troops sent from El Paso still guard the Texas side of the river, and have found evidences of where the rebels were camped on the Texas side recently. All the women and children of San Ignacio are still camped on Texas soil.

Guillermo Porraz, secretary of state of Chihuahua, reached here from Galeana, where fighting has been in progress for nearly a week, coming on a freight train He refused to talk of the fighting, but admitted that the federal loss had been heavy, and also the rebel loss

BILL REGULATES THE LOAN SHARKS

Senator Haas, of Delaware, Introduces the Measure.

Columbus, O., Jan 26.—Senator Haas, of Delaware, has introduced a bill to regulate the loan sharks. His bill provides that all collateral loan agents must register with the secretary of state and limits them to eight per cent per year

Mrs. George Montgomery, of Fairground street, is very ill of pneumonia.

Galion holds that the fact that her school enumeration has been from one to two hundred greater than that of Bucyrus for the last ten years goes to show that there is something wrong with the census which gives her population something like a thousand less than that of the county capital Still it may be that they esteem the Roosevelt idea more highly in Galion than at the county seat

A family was wiped out in a grade crossing accident near Marion the other night says the Sandusky Star Journal Possibly they'll begin to talk about eliminating such death trap crossings in Marion after the funeral services have been conducted We have understood that the practice of taking in the outlying country districts to overcome a decrease in population has been resorted to in some localities but Marion has never yet had occasion to take in an incorporated village ten miles away hence the impropriety of her beginning to talk about the elimination of the death trap in question

MORE POWER TO VICE PRESIDENT

The Cleveland Plain Dealer indulges in a rather cheerful lighthearted fling at Vice President Sherman It is probably only intended as a repetition of the ancient joke about men shelved in the vice presidential office Personally we have always believed that the duties of the vice president and the prestige of his office should be increased by making him a member of the president's cabinet He may at any time be called upon to take up the duties of the presidency and should be constantly in touch with administrative matters But to return to Mr Sherman he is discharging with dignity ability and impartial fairness all the duties which fall to him He has made good in all the relations of life He won success in business before he entered upon a political career and served conspicuously in congress for many years We are disposed to resent slurs at Mr Sherman because he is a type of public man which is growing unfortunately rare He is an optimist He not only believes in his countrymen but he also has faith in his countrymen May his tribe increase

It has been shown by the state auditor that the surplus in the treasury is melting away rapidly and that the revenues in sight will not meet the expenses of the state government unless some new sources are discovered Nevertheless the general assembly voted to ratify the income tax amendment and bestow but possible source of revenue upon the federal government

The North Dakota legislature has by resolution protested against the election of Mr Sheehan as senator from New York and the Montana legislature has officially deplored the reelection of Senator Lorimer Now what would happen if some Down East Yankee wandered into those wild and woolly regions and butted in on one of the next senatorial elections" And both of them are notoriously action burnoukhs

C Homer Durand of Cincinnati secretary of the Personal Liberty League of Ohio intimated to the senate temperance committee that if all the solons should sawdust up before the Neil House bar to test their own sentiments it would be possible to wring a lot of genuine moral legislation the general assembly could would pass this session Thus that far famed brand of lemonade sold by the Neil House has been projected into the moral discussion

The St Louis Globe Democrat referring to the deaths of three Germans who refused to surrender and went down with a submarine calls it an exhibition of heroism that kind of sentiment makes us exceedingly ashamed How terribly it can the three in question have their country's interest at heart

GIVE BRIGHAM CREDIT WHICH IS HIS DUE

Some people are objecting because the face of Brigham Young appears on the silver service presented by the state of Utah to the battleship Utah bearing her name It is unjust Brigham Young will be great a man in Utah's history and one of the most remarkable men ever produced in this country Even while denying his claims as a prophet he did much without and adding belief or pretension to abhor all who are familiar with his history and achievements must admit his wonderful abilities He led an absurd religious cult but it religion and would be laughed at by them and He led his people of many nationalities away from their oppressors held them together through awful perils and deprivation and brought them over mountains and across deserts and founded an empire

He was a soldier and led his militia with consummate skill in defense of his people against the assaults of the non believers and the Indians

He was a statesman On the frail elements affording reared by the visionary and knavish Joe Smith Young reared a church and a government and ruled his people as no other ruler ever ruled more wisely than any czar

As an administrator and lawgiver he was within the limits of his field as cunning wise and skillful as Moses He took the desert and brought to it the clear water of the mountains and made it blossom like a garden He was an engineer a landscape gardener artist architect and builder and has left enduring monuments to his preeminent ability in each capacity

He was a diplomat one of the greatest as is shown conclusively by the fact that he kept in harmony as a record his twenty wives and their families

He was not altogether admirable his work was not altogether good but neither was it altogether evil While we can not rank him with those who have most worthily served the republic we must not deny his claim to preeminence as one of the strongest characters of the new world

In this connection it is interesting to speculate what would be the present strength of the Mormon faith if its founders had not offended the conscience of the American people with the provision for plural marriages We are a tolerant people and but for this offending tenet it is not likely that they would have been any interference with Smith or his followers And yet this may have been the one thing that drew to the cult men of strong lawless passions like Young and again religions seem to thrive and strength under persecution

But Brigham Young had within himself the seeds of greatness and he would have written a conspicuous page in our history if Joe Smith had never dreamed or schemed It is right that his name and features should be associated with Utah's fame He wrested the territory from nature and was the first conservationist and irrigationist of the western empire He was one of the great builders

Last year 111 tracts in Marion county were advertised for unpaid taxes while this year but 2 tracts were advertised Looks as though old prosperity is sticking fast to the job

The Japanese admiral who broke into print on the subject of the impropriety of forbidding the Panama canal has been called back to Japan to do a stunt upon the carpet before the Mikado Some of these naval officers American as well as Japanese appear to labor under the belief that the navy department is a school of oratory

The senate temperance committee having recommended the Deal bill for passage the ultra dry people will come mighty near leaning to the view that the name of that committee is a misnomer

It may not be amiss to call the attention of the Ohio legislature to the fact that the state spent several hundred thousand dollars within the past few years for a codification of the statutes and that there is no crying need to muss up the symmetry of that colossal work

Elihu Root considered one of the greatest lawyers in America has been giving the weight of his influence to the movement to simplify court procedure As president of the New York Bar association he recently called attention to the waste of time and the loitering methods at present through the practice of judges in restating long established legal opinions in new forms and at immoderate length He also urged that a statute rule be adopted providing reversal of judgment upon error in pleading unless it be shown that the pleading had a vital bearing upon the judgment In other words he seeks to prevent the delay and failure of justice now chargeable upon giving immaterial technicalities

Woman Is Alone in the Kitchen When the Accident Occurs—Is the Mother of Two Small Children Husband Is Almost Prostrated with Grief

Prospect O Jan 21—[Special]—While building a fire to prepare breakfast at her home two miles west of here this morning shortly before 6 o'clock Mrs Frank Warren used about thirty five years was fatally burned when a tank of kerosene which she was using exploded burning her face arms and chest almost to a crisp The attending surgeons say she cannot recover

At the time of the accident Mr Warren had left the house to do some chores before breakfast and the wife hastened to get the meal For some reason the fire refused to burn as readily as she wished and she was pouring kerosene into the stove when the fatal explosion occurred A liveryman from Richwood who happened to be going along the road near the house at the time heard the report and saw the woman in flames He rushed hurriedly into the house where he gave her assistance and smothered the flames Drs Charles Finefrock and R H Finefrock of Prospect and Dr Wurtsbaugh of Richwood were immediately summoned After an examination they declared the burns necessarily fatal

Mrs Warrens children were in bed at the time their mother met with the unfortunate accident and were awakened to find that she had been fatally burned The husband was almost prostrated with grief when he came to the home after looking after his morning's work

The unfortunate woman was given every attention possible but after lingering in terrible agony until 10 o'clock she died

TESTED AND PROVEN

There Is a Heap of Solace in Being Able to Depend Upon a Well-Earned Reputation

For months Marion readers have seen the constant expression of praise for Doan's Kidney Pills and read about the good work they have done in this locality Not another remedy ever produced such convincing proof of merit

Mrs B Cusic 785 Patterson street Marion Ohio says 'I have known of the value of Doan's Kidney Pills for many years I never used this remedy myself but other people in my house have taken it with gratifying results A member of my family was an almost constant sufferer from kidney complaint and backache and hearing that Doan's Kidney Pills were very effective in bringing relief from this trouble a supply was procured from Schmidt & Co's Drug Store No remedy could have given greater satisfaction Short use of Doan's Kidney Pills removed the trouble and the cure has been permanent I publicly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills as in July 1904 and at this time I am still a strong advocate for them

BENJAMIN LEAVENS DISCOVERS MISTAKE

Finds He Is Not a Citizen of the United States

STORY OF BOSSING CASE RAISES DOUBT

Calls at Office of Clerk of Court to Learn If He Is Within the Law When Voting—Is Informed that He Is Not—Makes Application for the Necessary Papers

Although he came to this country from Canada in 1870 and has been voting and enjoying other privileges of a citizen of the United States since taking out his first naturalization papers in 1900 Benjamin Leavens residing at No — Blaine avenue has just discovered that he is not a naturalized citizen

Appearing in the office of County Clerk W W Klinefelter Saturday forenoon Leavens said that he had read the story of Louis Bossing who thought that he had been naturalized I thought that I'd better come up and see whether I am a citizen he said Ever since I took out my first papers at Versailles Indiana I have been voting When I registered here in Marion I told that I was a native of Canada They looked at my first paper here and said that was all that was necessary for me to register

Upon being informed that the first paper were only preliminary to filing a petition for naturalization Leavens declared that he wanted to file such a petition One was accordingly made out and he will be given a hearing next May at the same time the petition of Louis Bossing is heard

Leavens was born in Ontario Canada in 1850 He has a wife and several children

VICTIMS OF TRAGEDY ARE BURIED FRIDAY

They Are Laid To Rest in Cemetery at Agosta

MANY FRIENDS PAY TRIBUTE TO THE DEAD

Probably 1000 People Are in Attendance at the Funeral Services Which Are Held Friday Afternoon—the Funeral Is the Largest in History of the Village

A young mother and father both occupying the same position and the husband father victims of the railway crossing tragedy at Agosta Tuesday night were buried in a double grave in the hillside cemetery at Agosta Friday afternoon. They were Mr and Mr Clark Each event found mourners there but the three coffins were all that

One thousand people gathered to crowd into the Agosta church where the funeral services were held It was the largest funeral ever held in that part of the county and the first triple funeral People came to Agosta from all parts of the county some coming from Marion

Rev I Carey of Agosta officiated Hymns were sung by Rev H Wahl and C I Purkiss of Marion The service began at 11 o'clock and lasted until 2 o'clock

At the close of the services the caskets were opened and those in the church and outside the church were permitted to look upon them and gave upon the features of the dead Many sobbed as they looked upon the mother and her babe lying to her breast as though in peaceful slumber

At the double grave at their last service was held as the funeral services continuing all that was mortal of the little family were allowed to descend to their final resting place

MARION BANKERS GIVEN WARNING

A Counterfeit Ten-Dollar Note Is in Circulation

Many bonds have been notified by Washington office is to be on the lookout for a practically perfect counterfeit of a ten dollar note which is now being circulated through the country The work is clever and is deceiving for the best of judges The following information has been sent out from headquarters

The best counterfeit bill since the famous Monte bonds of silver that turned out by the Taylor Leeds gang in 1898 has been found in circulation by the secret service It is a ten dollar note on the National Bank of Commerce of Wichita and will deceive any but the most expert But probably an engraving of an exceptionally good wood cut Secret Service Chief Moran of the secret service declares it one of the best counterfeits he has seen in many years

The little word which is usually the telltale of all counterfeits is practically perfect but the fingers in the uplifted hand of the goddess who rides in eagle on the right side are poor The colored silk threads are too many and too heavy

REV NORMAN THOMAS NOT QUITE ORTHODOX

But Is Licensed To Preach by New York Presbytery

Mennonites will be specially interested in a newspaper paragraph which has reached city from the Ohio State Journal It reads as follows

At a special meeting of the New York Presbytery last Monday Rev Norman M Thomas a graduate of the Union Theological Seminary was granted license to preach notwithstanding it was stated before the meeting that he did not accept the authority of the Holy Scriptures as the only infallible rule of faith and practice

There was no doubt as to his attitude for it was generally admitted that this was the case but he did not deny it The particular charge was that he refused to affirm his faith in the virgin birth of Christ the raising of Lazarus from the dead or the raising of Christs body from the grave In dispatch giving this information does not state how these great doctrines the meeting event were only giving the news

The news is interesting to Marion because Rev Norman M Thomas is of Marion birth and early training His father was the second pastor of the First Presbyterian church and pastor and family were all greatly beloved And Dr Thomas was quite as orthodox as the bluest of blue stockings He accepted the Bible story of creation as literal taught preached and lived that way

The recently licensed minister is the eldest son and is one of the finest young men in all the world He may be touched with heterodoxy but he is big of mind and heart and soul and will be a forceful influence for good The Star knew him as a earnest boy and his great future was suggesting itself when he was only a faithful and gentlemanly deliverer of the paper

SKELETON OF A DOG INSTEAD OF A MAN

Remains Viewed by Coroner in the Reber Woods

The skeleton of a large dog in a field covered to a stump and hot to death was found by Coroner W H Hanlin and Patrolman J W Thompson when they visited the abandoned house quarry on the Reber farm two miles north of Marion late Thursday afternoon Later Bob and two other boys had reported to the police but they had seen the remains of a man and pandemonium reigned for awhile in police circles

Chief John W Klinefelter dispatched Officer Thompson to the scene of the tragedy But Officer Thompson was unwilling to go without the officer and finally after several hours delay the coroner and the other made their way to the quarry The were accompanied by the three boys Where the man was supposed to have lain the skeleton of the canine was found The boys insisted however that they had seen a man's body

I think they must have had a dream said Coroner Hanlin later in speaking of the discovery of the frightened youngsters

NEW ORLEANS WINS THE FIRST BATTLE

Favored Over San Francisco for Big Battle

Washington Jan 21 A preliminary victory was won by New Orleans over San Francisco in the fight for the exposition to commemorate the opening of the Panama canal today when by a vote of nine to six the house committee on industrial arts and expositions decided to report favorably the bill appropriating $1 000 000 for a government exhibition

The decision of the committee means that the majority will report the bill and measure and the minority of six will file a minority report embracing a bill designating San Francisco

The supporters of the Pacific coast declared today that the action of the committee would not prevent the fair from going to San Francisco as that city they asserted had a working majority on the floor of the house Today's vote was taken after a strenuous session

GRAND JURORS ARE GIVEN INSTRUCTIONS

Attention Is Called to Violations of Liquor Laws.

VEILED REFERENCE TO DRY DETECTIVES

Jurors Charged That Character of Dry Detectives Is Such That Their Evidence Must Be Supported by That of Others—But Few Cases for Consideration—Court Notes

In charging the grand jurors as to their duties Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock Judge Frank Baldwin, of Bowling Green called particular attention to violations of the Rose local option law He did the same in a scathing though veiled attack upon the character of the men who violate the law in order to catch the bootleggers They are given immunity baths, but their moral depravity remains the judge declared and their evidence should not be considered, unless it be corroborated by other substantial witness

The court's charge with reference to the Rose law was generally regarded by attorneys in the court-room as a hard rap at dry detectives

The grand jury retired for deliberation at 11 15 Prosecuting Attorney Charles L Justice, when asked how long the jury would be in session declared it's all a gamble but the probabilities are we will get done by Thursday evening

The grist is one of the lightest in years and is as follows

Edward Mortell and Michael Shea, each charged with horse stealing, Timothy Sullivan, Howard Stevens and Earl Hill each charged with assault with intent to rob John Paulos pocket-picking, Liberty Reece, assault with intent to kill, E R Durfee assault and battery, and Robert P Crist grand larceny in stealing a small tray of diamonds from the George W Bowers jewelry store

The grand jury consists of George Davis Samuel G Foster George A Douce John Imbody R E Monnette Herman Flach W F Smiley and Ezra George, farmers and Ora C Danner Harvey Stoll David Haberman Charles Gilbert John Kelleher and Roy Chapman, of Marion

Fred Drury, operating under the trade name of Drury Brothers company through Attorney John H Clark brought an action in the common pleas court Tuesday afternoon against Benjamin Mosier and Owen M Foos He seeks judgment for $210 99 for work and labor performed by him at the defendants request in baling thirty-two tons of hay

Harry Armstrong, who was fined in violation of the Rose local option law has been given leave to file a petition-in-error in the common pleas court

Charging her husband with extreme cruelty Nellie Bird brought an action for a divorce from Oliver Bird Tuesday in the common pleas court Judge Baldwin granted a temporary injunction restraining him from disposing of or encumbering property valued at $1,000 in this city and at Delaware Two months after they were married in November 1898 the plaintiff claims her husband criminally and brutally assaulted her with his fist Another time he drove her from the house in the dead of winter when she wore nothing but her night clothes she says Attorney Louis L Myers represents the plaintiff

The suit of Gracely & Mantz against Ferdinand Gorenflo, receiver has been settled out of court

An application for an order to distribute the proceeds of the sale of the Park View sanatorium owned by the Ohio Sanatorium company at Columbus was granted by Judge Frank A Baldwin of Bowling Green Tuesday afternoon

Dr C E Saw as the receiver will distribute the sum of $25 000 as follows

Mortgage and interest to Guaranty Title & Trust company $14,040 taxes and special assessments $2 0 7 60 street cleaning for year 1910 $47 60 for abstract and guarantee of title to Guaranty Title & Trust company $167 50 Dr J F Jones commission for making sale, $150 incidental expenses connected with sale $20 5 total, $16 840 10

The balance of $11 159 70 is ordered distributed to the holders of the preferred stock in proportion to the amount held by them The Ohio Sanatorium company has a stock issue of $4 50,000 of which $22 5 000 is preferred

In the suit of William J Thibaut against Elmer Mayfield the defendant, through Attorneys Quigley & Johnson has filed an answer, admitting that he signed a note for $71 09, payable to Thibaut brothers but denies each and every other allegation He declared that, September 25 1907 he signed and delivered his promissory note and that he paid it in full a few days later He asks that the plaintiff's petition be dismissed

The following jury cases have been assigned for Judge Baldwin next week as follows

After a married life of thirty-four years, Judge Baldwin Wednesday granted Harvey P Cope a divorce from Julia Cope on the statutory ground of three years wilful absence The plaintiff testified that he had always provided well for his wife but she unjustly forced him to leave the home provided for defendant by him He declared that she told him that there was no room for him That was twelve years ago

A petition asking that County Treasurer W C Wotring be temporarily restrained and enjoined from collecting a ditch assessment of $79 was filed in the common pleas court, Wednesday by John W Robinson of Bowling Green township, through Attorney W N Harder The injunction was granted by Judge Baldwin

In his petition the plaintiff sets up that a certain petition was filed with County Auditor Charles L Allen, September 21, 1908 It asked for the location construction, deepening widening and straightening of a county ditch known as Dudley run He says the proposed ditch improvement was granted that no part of the ditch is on his land, the nearest point it comes to it being ninety-one rods that he never received any notice of the proposed improvement and he knew nothing about it until he discovered that he had been assessed $79

A member of the grand jury, which convened Tuesday, declared, Wednesday, that the probabilities were the grand jurors would not complete their deliberations before Saturday Thirty-nine witnesses have already been subpoenaed to appear and testify, and others will be called

MONEY ORDER SALES TO OUR ITALIANS

Marion Postoffice Sales Reach $3,500 in One Day.

Every now and then the money order department of the Marion postoffice has an unusually big day Very recently, in one day the money order sales aggregated more than $3,500, and more than ninety-five per cent of this sum went to Italian residents, and in sums of $40 to $200 to the order The money was largely sent to sunny Italy Occasionally an order is drawn on the local office, in which case it is essentially a certificate of deposit

Money order sales often aggregate $2 000 to $2 500, immediately after a railway pay Formerly the Italian workers sent their money to Cleveland and New York banks, but a couple of failures changed the course Now the larger part goes to the old world

In the days of the Black Hand gang big money sales were common but that was the transfer of ill gotten money to the old world The big money-order sales of the present day are to the wage-earners

MAKING A NATION

By William T. Ellis.

The International Sunday-School Lesson for January 29 Is "Jehoshaphat's Good Reign in Judah." Eleven Chronicles 17 1-13.

National problems are getting an unusual share of attention all around the world these days The question of what constitutes success for a nation is a very living one The past is the teacher of the present and as the real essentials of life never change, we may learn from the little old nation of the Jews something about national problems for present use

The big question with the Jews was the question of a king The southern kingdom had been blessed with a good leader in Asa, now we find his son Jehosaphat on the throne to carry on and strengthen the noble ways of his father Good leaders are a first essential of success in organized society No scheme of government has yet been devised that can work without strong men at its head Even a weak and ignorant people may prosper if the leaders are great Traveling over Mount Carmel I came to the little Druse village of Dalyet on the summit It was the cleanest and most prosperous village I had seen in all Turkey Upon inquiring the reason I was shown the house of Mr and Mrs Laurence Oliphant the writers, who had lived here many years, and had shown their native neighbors a better way of living That is the way many missionaries are transforming their neighborhoods It is the personal element that counts for most always A community's character is fixed by its strong personalities The Jehoshaphats make the strong nations, therefore the importance of choosing leaders wisely

Religion and Politics

Some stupid persons, who know little history, past or contemporaneous say that religion has nothing to do with politics If political creeds are not an outcome of religious faith, then the nation is on a very shallow foundation indeed In the Turkish empire today as in the time of Israel, politics is but another name for religion The highest and deepest aspects of Turkey's problems, as I have investigated them, are wholly religious The secret of the unrest in the Moslem world was given to me last night by a distinguished Syrian publicist The Moslems are jealous of Christians whom they see to have all the power in the world, while everywhere the Moslems are backward

So it is not merely a matter of ancient history that prosperity in the long run attends the nations that worship Jehovah There is nothing accidental in the fact that the earth's surface is almost wholly divided up amongst the Christian nations The God who gave prosperity to Judah when it was true to Him is still ordering the affairs of mankind Godliness is gain for this present world Instead of petty political contentions, citizens would do well to cry, in true contrition of heart,

"The tumult and the shouting dies,
The captains and the kings depart,
Still stands Thine ancient sacrifice,
An humble and a contrite heart
Lord God of Hosts, be with us yet,
Lest we forget—lest we forget!"

A Glimpse of Heathenism.

Big political problems Jehoshaphat had in plenty, but his chief difficulty was religious The Jews had not advanced very far beyond the tribal conception of God Sometimes chiefly from base motives, they were tempted to change the fashions in gods and follow the one most in vogue among their neighbors—which come to think of it, is to this day the most prevalent form of idolatry The name for a god among the neighboring nations was baal this is not a distinctive name but rather a general title like "lord" There were many baals in and about the borders of Judah They were in constant competition with Jehovah, they were the chief obstacle to the reforms of Jehoshaphat and the other pious leaders

The asheroth were another form of idolatry They were sacred trees, or sacred poles planted alongside the altars Tree worship and stone worship exist in the East to this day, the former especially in Korea On the road between Jericho and Jerusalem there is a boulder which is believed to have magical powers, and it is heaped up with small votive stones

The high places of the Old Testament are incomprehensible to many readers of the Bible The first I saw was a square structure of huge stones on the crest of a hill in the uplands of Moab Later, at the mysterious city of Petra, in Edom, I saw them crowning almost every summit There they are cut out of the solid rock and still survive as squared platforms or altars, with channels for the blood of the sacrifical victims The pillars that stood by them have gone, the very names of the gods to whom they were erected are unknown Time has vindicated Jehoshaphat and the other friends of Jehovah who had such sore struggles against the high places, the asheroth and the baalim

The Conqueror With a Book

The shrewdness of Jehoshaphat aimed his goodness He had the rare gift of knowing how to turn his resolutions into revolutions He exhorted his people to turn to Jehovah — and then he sent teachers through the land to show them how No reform can be permanently assured unless it is built upon the sure foundation of the people's intelligent conviction A hortatory revival of religion means little more than so much wasted nerve tissue and vocal power It is a mere drain upon the emotions, predisposing them to emotional ossification But a Bible studying revival insures transformations of character Turn people to the book and you turn them to God of a surety The most potent force now at work in the near East for the prestige of the Anglo-Saxon race is not the warships of the diplomats of Great Britain and the United States but the schools maintained by the American missionaries A deeper and more pertinent illustration of Jehoshaphat's reform by the book is afforded by the mission press at Beirut One who looks closely into this statesmanlike institution becomes convinced that here is the agency that will ultimately cast down the false prophet from his baneful dominion over so much of Asia What force and diplomacy can not do, the Word of God will yet accomplish

This revivalist-king, Jehoshaphat, if we may call him, did not merely lend his moral support to the good work of religion He himself went up and down the land leading the people back to Jehovah He said, 'Come,' which is a word people will hear when they will not listen to 'Go"

A Builder King.

Productiveness is the final test of a man, as of a people "What have they ever done? Where is the art or science that they have given to the world?" is a question I have had flung at me often of late concerning the Turks The question is the one instinctively asked about everybody Jehoshaphat could answer it, for he was a builder He strengthened the existing cities and garrisons and he also established new ones The person who gives the world a new rat trap, a new broom, a new idea, a new bean, a new poem a new kind of soup, belongs to the glorious company of the builders He is in the class with Jehoshaphat

With the wisdom of a truly wise ruler, King Jehoshaphat established a just judical system in the land—would that he might return to the same land today todo likewise A company of educated Syrian men were pouring into my ears their country's woes, and their chief plaint was summed up in the cry for justice A venal judge a weak or corrupt court, is a far worse scourge to a nation than the cholera or the plague It is in justice that the East has always been weak, so we honor the king who made law to run equitably throughout the land

Of course Jehoshaphat blundered in his alliance with Ahab, all of us blunder when we become politic, and substitute worldly wisdom for simple allegiance to the right as we see it The friend of God has no need to worry about keeping on good terms with the powerful ones of earth God's favor is more potent than an Ahab's army

When he was thrown back upon Jehovah by his own helplessness in the presence of a mighty foe, Jehoshaphat learned that the Lord has a word for all his fighting saints "Fear not ye neither be dismayed by reason of this great multitude, for the battle is not yours, but God's"

THE CELEBRATION OF A PRETTY HOME WEDDING

Miss Mary E. Wasser Marries Mr. James E Campbell

COMPANY OF FRIENDS WITNESSES CEREMONY

Mr. and Mrs Campbell Are Held in the Highest Regard by a Wide Circle of Friends—They Will Make Their Future Home on a Farm West of the City.

CONFERENCE IS HELD ON TAX CONDITIONS

Increase of Valuations on Personal Property

LOOKING FORWARD TO PASSAGE OF LAW

What Will Follow the Passage of the New One-Per-Cent Tax Measure The County Commissioners and Deputy Auditor Jay Spaulding Talk Over the Situation

By increasing the personal property of all the villages in the county 100 per cent the villages will still be short from 75 to 125 per cent of having sufficient valuation to raise money enough to run them respective governments, if the one per cent tax limit bill becomes a law and in all probability it will be passed by the general assembly at this session

The situation confronting Marion and the villages of the county, with a one-per-cent law in force was recognized as being very serious at a conference between the county commissions and Deputy Auditor Jay Spaulding Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock

By increasing the personal property of the townships 100 per cent over last year, more than enough taxes can be raised to carry on the business of the townships with the exception of one The single exception is Grand township, which will be short about $1 000 when 100 per cent is added to the personality The addition of 100 per cent in all the other townships will more than raise sufficient taxes for operating expenses

With regard to the city of Marion, a 100 per cent addition to the personal property will not raise sufficient money, and the probabilities are that the state tax commission will be compelled to add on the twenty-five per cent taken off by the city board of quadrennial assessors, and then some

No opinions were expressed at Tuesday's conference, but it was deemed advisable for Deputy Auditor Spaulding to submit the facts to the state tax commission as had been requested Mr Spaulding did so Wednesday

The county board of equalization has never fixed the realty values of the villages and is therefore at liberty to raise both the real and personal property

Following is the percentage of increase that must be made on village realty

Caledonia, 111 per cent, Green Camp thirty-four per cent, Kalida ninety-eight per cent New Bloomington fifty per cent, Prospect, fifty-eight per cent, Morral, seventy-one per cent, Waldo, seven per cent

In the city of Marion an increase of ninety per cent on realty will have to be made by the state tax commission

THE DELINQUENT LIST GREATLY DECREASED

Lightest in the History of Marion County

THE PEOPLE SEEM VERY PROSPEROUS

Last Year 444 Parcels of Land Are Advertised for Sale for Taxes. This Year but 254 Parcels Are Advertised and Some of Those Are Now Off the Books

If the list of properties advertised for sale by County Treasurer W C Wotring for delinquent taxes is any barometer of Marion county's financial condition, then the past year has been a properous one

A year ago 444 parcels of land were advertised for the delinquent tax sale This year 254 parcels are advertised This is the lightest delinquent tax sale in the county for many years and shows the people to be in prosperous circumstances

The value of all parcels advertised for the delinquent sale has not been totaled by the clerks in the treasurer's office, but it will amount away up into the thousands, yet far below that of a year ago

Deputy Treasurer L G Jones states that since the delinquent list was advertised in the newspapers many have come in and paid the penalties and the delinquent taxes, The tax sale will take place February 14, and the indications are that the list of 254 parcels will be cut down to considerably less than 200 before that date

Wednesday was the last day for the payment of taxes, but, under a ruling of the attorney general, the treasurer cannot close his books until the day of the delinquent tax sale However, practically all of the taxpayers have paid

The receipts of Tuesday amounted to over $13,000 and Wednesday's receipts are expected to bring the total amount of taxes up close to the $300,000 mark

THE LODGES.

At a largely-attended meeting of the Knights of Columbus, Tuesday evening, the officers elected for the ensuing year were installed as follows

Martin J Burke, grand knight, John B Ryan, deputy grand knight, William P Moloney, chancelor William M Gavin recorder, Edward F Cusack financial secretary Charles B Drake treasurer, Michael C O'Brien, lecturer Edward J Masterson, advocate, William Winstead Jr, warden, Thomas Ryan, inside guard, and John Hogan, outside guard Patrick Kelly, A C Edmondson and Henry A Schuler were installed as trustees and Rev Father J M Denning as chaplain

Arrangements were completed at the meeting for a dance to be given in the Huber hall Thursday evening Plans were also made for a stag social to be held in the lodge hall next Tuesday evening

They Strike

Section men on the Erie Tuesday morning, went out on a strike and the work of keeping the tracks in condition, Tuesday, was dispensed with and probably will be until an agreement is reached with the foreigners For some time it has been found necessary to cut down the time of the men and their wages were also materially reduced The men, Tuesday morning announced that they would not work until better working time and wages are given them They will probably demand the full time before they return to work Not only is the work tied up on this division but on many of the other divisions and if more men or other departments quit work, considerable difficult may be experienced

A DIVORCE DECREE IS GRANTED PLAINTIFF

Mrs. Firstenberger Gets Divorce and Alimony.

COURT MAKES QUICK DISPOSITION OF CASE

Philip Firstenberger Pays His Divorced Wife $2,000 Alimony in Accord with Agreement and Judgment of Court—Notes Gathered in the Court of Common Pleas.

Although twenty-seven witnesses had been summoned to testify, Judge Frank A. Baldwin made short work of the divorce and alimony hearing of Elizabeth Firstenburger against Philip Firstenburger, a wealthy Richland township farmer Wednesday afternoon. He suggested that he hear the testimony of the two principals first and after that only two other witnesses were called to the stand. Judge Baldwin granted Mrs. Firstenburger a decree of divorce, restored her to her former married name of Myers and fixed her alimony at $2,000, as agreed upon by counsel. He stipulated that the divorce decree was not to be entered until the alimony settlement was consummated, and that was done Thursday.

In the first place Mrs. Firstenburger brought an action for alimony. She was allowed to amend her petition and ask for a divorce. Her husband did not combat her action for divorce, but was fighting the alimony feature. The plaintiff charged him with cruelty and gross neglect. The trouble arose in the beginning over church differences, it developed at the hearing. They were married in January, 1909, and lived together only about six months. Each had been married before.

In the suit of Malcomb Porter, administrator, against Charles Sutton and others, leave has been given Charles Sutton to plead for Orville Sutton by February 18.

In the foreclosure proceeding of Chris Berringer against Christian Ruth and others, Sheriff John G. Stark has been appointed receiver without bond to collect the rents until further orders of the court.

While intimating that he might overrule a motion to quash the service of summons, on account of the county clerk neglecting to endorse the amount sued for on the summons, Judge Frank A. Baldwin declined to pass on the motion in the common pleas court, just before noon, Thursday, because Judge Babst in a similar motion sustained it. This was in the action of Samuel N. Abie and others against Henry N. Oberlander, wherein the plaintiffs seek to recover judgment for repairs made by them following a fire in the place of business now occupied by them on east Center street, known as the Palm cafe. The first summons served on the defendant was not endorsed according to law and Judge Babst sustained the defendants' motion to quash. A second summons was served and, although it stated the amount sued for, Judge Babst still held that it did not comply with the statutes. Then a third summons was issued and this is the one that Judge Baldwin declined to pass upon. He suggested that counsel argue the points before Judge Babst, and stated, further, that two common pleas judges of the same subdivision should not appear at cross-purposes and that is what would happen should he pass upon the matter.

A motion to strike the fifth amended petition from the files and a demurrer to the same cause of action were overruled in the damage suit of John Weston against the Marion Malleable company by Judge Baldwin, Thursday. In passing upon the motion and the demurrer, Judge Baldwin remarked that the case seemed to have a "tortuous history" in the courts. It has been to the circuit court twice and sent back. The plaintiff seeks damages for personal injuries.

A motion to remand the attachment suit of the International Harvester Company of America against George W. Parish and others back to the court of Justice Charles E. Gompf for retrial was overruled by Judge Baldwin Thursday. Leave was given the defendants to plead by February 11.

Judge Baldwin has sustained a motion to make the petition more definite and certain in the damage suit of Lory W. Phelps against the Chicago & Erie Railway company. The plaintiff was given leave to file an amended petition by February 11.

The general demurrer to the petition of William G. Mautz against Benjamin F. Bigford and others was overruled by Judge Baldwin Thursday. The defendants were given leave to answer by February 11.

URAEMIC POISONING IS CAUSE OF DEATH

Little LaRue M. Barnes Passes Away Wednesday.

LaRue Maywood Barnes, aged twelve years, four months and two days, died of uraemic poisoning at the home of his aunt, Mrs. T. B. Graham, No. 317 south Prospect street, Wednesday evening at 6:15 o'clock. The little fellow came here on a visit about a week ago from the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Baxter, four miles east of Mt. Gilead.

The child's mother died when he was one year old and the father, Ralph Barnes, a dentist, is believed to be in the United States navy. Two years ago the boy fell out of a tree at his grandparents' home and injured his spine. Mr. and Mrs. Baxter, the grandparents, had gone to California to spend the winter, and are now enroute to Morrow county. The remains were taken to Morrow county Thursday, and funeral services were conducted from the Baxter home.

DR. E. O. RICHARDSON REMOVES TWO EYES

Edward Nickelson and Finley Kemper Are Injured.

Edward Nickelson, of No. 360 north Prospect street, an employe in the chipping room at the Marion Steam Shovel company's plant, had his right eye removed by Dr. E. O. Richardson, Wednesday, as a result of being struck by a sliver of steel. A piece of steel about half an inch long was drawn from the eyeball by a powerful magnet. The eyeball collapsed and it was then necessary to remove it.

Tuesday, Dr. Richardson removed the left eye of Finley Kemper, of LaRue, who was kicked by a horse. It was necessary to remove the damaged eye in order to preserve the sight of the other.

DR. W. A. FRANCE IS IN SERIOUS TROUBLE

Is Indicted by a Federal Grand Jury Recently.

TWELVE COUNTS ARE IN THE INDICTMENTS

Organize a Company and Attempt To Sell Stocks at Fabulous Figure by Use of the Mails It Is Alleged. A Bit of High Finance Which Gets Its Promoters into Trouble.

The telegraph columns of the Star, today, make reference to the arrest of Dr. W. A. France, who at one time held an extensive practice in this city and county and is well known in the city.

France has been indicted for using the mails to defraud by a federal grand jury, the indictment including twelve counts. One charge is that France and his associates owned three oil leases worth $5,000, but representing them to be worth $170,000 attempted to sell them to an oil company which they organized for $55,000, the bonds of the company to be taken in payment. The company was incorporated under the laws of Arizona with 1,500,000 shares valued at one dollar each. It is charged that two-thirds of the shares were held by France and his associates.

It is also claimed that France and his associates claimed that the leases produced 300 barrels of oil a day when they did not produce fifty. It is further urged that stock alleged to be paying twelve per cent. paid no dividend and was therefore worthless. Much of the stock selling was done by use of the mails.

ORGANIZATION OF STAMP COLLECTORS

Officers Elected at a Meeting Wednesday Evening.

A number of prominent men in the city, who are interested in the collection of postage stamps of the various countries of the world, met in the room under the Marion County bank, Wednesday evening, and organized a stamp collectors' society. The following officers were elected:

W. G. Windhurst, president; R. R. Wright, vice president, and W. H. Schaffner, secretary and treasurer.

Another meeting will be held in two weeks to perfect the organization, and to confer a name on the society.

Most of the members belong to the Columbus Collectors' club and for some time they have been discussing the organization of a local society. A number of the collectors have fine collections, their albums being filled with rare stamps, many of them carrying with them their own peculiar history, which makes the task of collecting them both fascinating and educational.

POLICE COURT.

The fob to the watch which was taken from a student at the Ohio Wesleyan university by Robert Christ, now being held in the local jail for robbery, has been returned to Chief J. W. Spaulding, at Delaware, and by him turned over to its owner. In a letter from Chief Spaulding to Chief Klinefelter, the latter has been asked to try and locate two other watches that were stolen in Delaware, and which Crist is believed to have stolen.

There is always room for one more in the straight and narrow path.

A good deal of hospitality is administered according to the homeopathic school.

MOTHERS' TEA AT EPWORTH CHURCH

An Afternoon Is Passed with Program.

A Mothers' tea was enjoyed by about seventy-five mothers of children in the beginners, primary and cradle roll departments of the Sunday-school of Epworth M. E. church in the basement of the church, Wednesday afternoon. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion. A short program was rendered. Mrs. George P. Vonstein gave a talk on "The Mother and the Teacher." Mrs. John Clark sang a solo and Mrs. E. R. Finley discussed "The Mother," after which Mrs. John Bain sang a solo. Mrs. W. R. Fisher gave a talk on "The Busy Mother." A round table was conducted by Mrs. John Kilbury and contrary to the usual custom, Mrs. Kilbury asked the questions and the mothers answered them. Dainty refreshments were served. The meeting throughout was one of very much profit to the mothers.

SMALL TAXPAYERS KEEP FORCE BUSY

A Rush at the Office of the County Treasurer.

The rush of small taxpayers was so great at the office of County Treasurer W. C. Wottring, Wednesday and Wednesday evening that the small office force was unable to handle several of the big corporations which were unable to pay. Accordingly they settled Thursday.

The receipts during the day amounted to nearly $10,000 and in the evening the sum of about $1,000 more was paid in, mostly by the employes of the Marion Steam Shovel company. Treasurer Wottring kept his office open in the evening to accommodate the steam shovel employes, who were paid Wednesday.

RAILROAD.

An agreement has been reached by the Erie officials with the striking section men and the work will be resumed without further difficulty. The men are given their former working time and the working conditions for which they asked. The foreigners on a number of the divisions of the road quit work this week on account of having their time cut down.

Miss Louise Frank, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Frank, of east Church street, celebrated her tenth birthday, Wednesday, by having a few of her schoolmates in to supper in the evening.

BONILLA LOSES ONLY GUNBOAT

Knox Orders Cooper To Seize the Hornet.

MARINES PLACED ON BOARD THE VESSEL

But Rebel Leader Is Little Discommoded

Washington Officials Hold Opinion That Little Sea Fighter Which Clears from New Orleans for the Honduran Coast Guilty of Technical Violation of the Neutrality Laws—Secretary's Statement

Washington Jan 23 Commander George F Cooper reported to the navy department that he had captured the gunboat Hornet His statement is short and says only that it had been found absolutely necessary to place on board a force of men from the cruiser Tacoma to detain the Hornet The detention of the Hornet was requested by Secretary of State Knox several days ago pending a decision by Attorney General Wickersham as to whether the Hornet violated the neutrality law of the United States before she sailed from New Orleans several weeks ago Before her departure her cargo was inspected and no evidence was found by federal officers that in their opinion would warrant in detaining her Upon arriving on the north coast of Honduras however she was fully armed and the fact that she was engaged in a warlike expedition was not concealed

Knox Alleges Technical Violation

Secretary Knox takes the position that a technical violation of the law was committed by the Hornet before her departure from New Orleans The officers of the state department contend that although there was no evidence of a violation of the neutrality law while she was at New Orleans the fact that she was fitted out immediately after leaving that port would indicate that she had violated the law

Manuel Bonilla the leader of the revolution was apparently preparing to force the principal cities on the north coast of Honduras to support his revolution by threatening bombardment in case of refusal The state department has declined to permit the bombardment of unfortified towns in Central America where there is danger of damaging American or foreign property While the capture of the Hornet will temporarily retard the progress of the revolution the belief prevails here that Bonilla will ultimately be successful in driving Davila out of Honduras

USING KINGDOM AS DOORWAY TO FRANCE

Pall Mall Gazette Prints Amazing Story Today

London Jan 24 Only the recent death of King Leopold of Belgium prevented Germany from invading France through Belgium according to a story published in today's Pall Mall Gazette The story which the Gazette admits is based on nothing more substantial than rumor is to the effect that Leopold who was greatly alarmed lest his misrule in the Congo would lead to foreign intervention asked Germany to protect his throne Germany acquiesced on condition that Belgium permit Germany to use the little kingdom as a doorway into France to which Leopold consented

The Gazette says that this agreement was discovered after Leopold's death Among the English diplomats the story is given great credence

BAND BRAVELY MEETS DEATH

Twelve Anarchists Executed in Tokyo

PLAN ATTACK ON THE MIKADO

The Execution Is Conducted with Secrecy

The Hour of Execution Is Kept from Public as the Government Fears Demonstration of Sympathizers—One Woman Is Among Those Who Die Today and She Shows Equal Bravery

Tokio Jan 24 Denjiro Kotoku his wife and ten other anarchists upon whom death sentences were passed by the supreme court last week were executed in the prison here today

The execution of the anarchists was conducted with as much secrecy as possible as the government feared a demonstration by sympathizers The hour was kept from the public

Those executed today were included in the list of twenty four who were found guilty by December and sentenced to death January 18 Thirteen of these will have their sentences commuted to life imprisonment

The anarchists were found guilty of a plot against the life of the Mikado and the high executive officials It developed during the government found that a band of fanatics had dynamite attacks against Mikado He personally directed the military trial of the plotters

Some days ago it was announced that the trial of the most notable woman anarchist Kanno Sugako was concluded It was claimed by the friends of the band as well as by her lawyer that she was not responsible for her actions as she was insane

Kotoku Shusui was the leader of the anarchists in the social state and was active in promoting the organization

When questioned by newspaper correspondents progressive leaders in the state declare the National Progressive Republican league will aid in the preparation of appropriate bills and resolutions and will furnish speakers and literature in support of the progressive actions on the propositions enumerated in the five numbered paragraphs set forth in the foregoing declaration of principles

The New Officials

At the first meeting of the league held last Saturday night the following officers were elected

President Senator Jonathan Bourne Jr of Oregon

First vice president Representative G W Norris of Nebraska

Second vice president Governor Chase S Osborn of Michigan

Treasurer Charles R Crane of Chicago

Executive committee Senator Moses E Clapp of Minnesota Senator Joseph L Bristow of Kansas Representative E H Hubbard of Iowa Representative I L Lenroot of Wisconsin Representative elect William Kent of California Gifford Pinchot of Pennsylvania George L Record of New Jersey and the president vice presidents and treasurer members ex officio

President Bourne of the league said today The declaration of principles of the National Progressive Republican league speaks for itself While membership is confined to those who believe that the Republican party represented by progressive Republicans offers the most encouragement for the establishment of these principles there is no purpose to make it a political organization in the sense of promoting the political fortunes of any man or men The endorsement of legislation carrying out the program is the sole aim and purpose and it stands ready wherever acceptable to all and such Democrats as well as Republicans legislation to secure such legislation

The league will at once enter upon an aggressive campaign state leagues will be organized and upon request furnished with public literature and speakers Permanent headquarters will be established for carrying on the work

Planning Ahead

Precise uniformity of legislation in the different states is not to be expected A common basis must be the conditions in each state as to the details of the legislation to be urged the object being to insure popular government in the end

Membership in the National Progressive Republican league consists of those who have signed the declaration of principles and constitution and of those who may hereafter be elected by a majority vote of the members

I expect to devote as much time to the work of the league so as my official duties will permit the league will be a permanent organization and its founders have made their plans for a continuance of its works for a number of years

Those who signed the declaration are

United States senators Bourne of Oregon Beveridge of Indiana Bristow of Kansas Brown of Nebraska Cummins of Iowa Clapp of Minnesota Dixon of Montana Gronna of North Dakota La Follette of Wisconsin

FOR POPULAR GOVERNMENT

New Movement Announced in Washington

PROGRESSIVE LEGISLATION

Among the Principles of New Platform

The Organization Is Called the National Progressive Republican League and Is Backed by a Number of Governors Senators and Prominent Men—Object Is Made Known in Today's Statement

Washington Jan 23 —Carrying a possibly greater significance than any political movement in years the formation of the National Progressive Republican league was announced here today Backed by nine United States senators six governors thirteen members of the house of representatives and many other prominent progressives the new organization binds itself to make a nation wide fight for the establishment of popular government

Representing the progressive wing of the Republican party the league was looked upon here today as the entering wedge for the fight of the progressives to gain control of the party before the next presidential election

In the senate the organization is composed of the La Follette Cummins Beveridge faction with Senator Bourne Republican of Oregon named as president of the league On the house side the Norris Murdock insurgent element forms the representation Among the private citizens appearing in the original list are William Allen White of Kansas Louis D Brandies of Massachusetts Gifford Pinchot former chief forester James R Garfield of Ohio Francis J Heney of California Ray Stannard Baker of Massachusetts and many others

The declaration of principles the platform of the new organization is as follows

The Principles

We the undersigned associate ourselves together as the National Progressive Republican league

The object of the league is the promotion of popular government and progressive legislation

Popular government in America has been thwarted and progressive legislation strangled by the special interests which control caucuses delegates conventions and party organizations and through control of the machinery of government nominations and platforms elect administrations legislatures representatives in congress and United States senators and control cabinet officers

Under existing conditions legislation in the public interest has been baffled and defeated This is evidenced by the long struggle to secure laws but partially effective for control of railway rates and services the revision of the tariff in the interest of the producer and consumer statutes dealing with trust and combinations based on sound economic principles as applied to modern industrial and commercial conditions a wise comprehensive and impartial reconstruction of banking and monetary laws the conservation of coal oil gas timber water powers and other natural resources belonging to the people and for the enactment of all legislation solely for the common good

Just in proportion as popular government has in certain states superseded the delegate convention system and the people have assumed control of the machinery of government has government become responsive to the popular will and progressive legislation been secured

Ideas Advocated

The Progressive Republican thus believes that popular government is fundamental to all other reforms To this end it advocates

1 The election of United States senators by direct vote of the people

2 Direct primaries for the nomination of all elective officials

3 The direct election of delegates to national conventions with provisions for their voting to express the choice for president and vice president

4 Amendment to state constitutions providing for the initiative referendum and recall

5 Thoroughgoing corrupt practices acts

A plan for extending the league activities throughout the nation is set forth in a supplemental statement

It does not commit its members to any specific laws

It does will cooperate with progressives in the several states and will endeavor to advance legislation in promoting the program of the league

When questioned by newspaper correspondents progressive leaders in the state declare the National Progressive Republican league will aid in the preparation of appropriate bills and resolutions and will furnish speakers and literature in support of the progressive actions on

THIEF STEALS THAW JEWELS

Pittsburg Detectives Aroused To Search

THE MISSING JEWELS VALUED AT $35,000

Mrs Thaw Prostrated Over Her Loss

That Some One Familiar with the Thaw Household Perpetrated the Theft Is Admitted and a Discharged Servant Is Among Those Suspected but No Trace of Her Can Be Found Today

Pittsburg Pa Jan 24 —The entire detective force of the city a score or more of special officers and private agency men are scouring Pittsburg today for some clew to the robbers who took jewels estimated to be worth over $35 000 from the home of Mrs William Thaw Jr on exclusive Lincoln avenue last night So far nothing has been found by which the authorities can guide their efforts

Among the stolen articles is a pearl necklace valued at $1 000 Mrs Thaw is prostrated and can do nothing to aid the police except to describe the missing jewelry

After dinner last night when Mrs Thaw went up stairs to dress for a social function she opened the door of a closet to get her jewels but they were gone Severe sweating of the domestics failed to reveal a clew

That some one familiar with the Thaw household perpetrated the theft is admitted and a discharged servant is among those suspected but no trace can be found of her Neither can the police account for the manner in which a person could have entered the house as all the windows and doors were locked and nothing was broken

Sequel to Shooting

As a result of the shooting affray at Bellefontaine an account of which was given in the Star Monday Oda F Hoover who shot Harry Wolf in a quarrel over the gas meter regulator on their oil wells has been bound over to the Logan county grand jury to answer to a charge of shooting with intent to kill Wolf will be given a hearing on a charge of assaulting Hoover as soon as he is able to appear in court

NEW JERSEY OLD GUARD DEFEATED

Governor Wilson Forces Prospective Election of Martine

Trenton N J Jan 24 The Old Guard of New Jersey Democracy suffered a crushing defeat today when Governor Woodrow Wilson by his personal influence forced the election of James E Martine democrat as United States senator to succeed John F Dryden a republican The vote of the constitutional forty one when the vote was taken separately in joint session of the legislature today was announced Jas E Smith Jr the Newark banker who had the back ing of the organization with drew from the fight his following over to him pledged Tonight's result will be that when the vote is taken in joint session tomorrow Martine will be elected

Smith issued a statement blaming Governor Wilson for his defeat He had refused to support the democratic candidate at the party primaries September and had insisted he was entitled to dictate the legislative slate Wilson took a different view and turned loose a fight for Martine the democratic nominee stirring up such a sentiment against Smith could not hold the legislators who had pledged him their votes prior to election

Abraham Tucker $2 000 fine and eighteen months

Judge's Comment

It was charged that the distilling company made and sold $190 000 worth of wine on which the government was paid internal revenue on only $20 000 worth

In imposing sentence Judge Landis

It may be good business policy on the part of the government to allow the secretary of the treasury to compromise these cases out of court upon cash payments before indictments are returned After indictments are returned it is necessary to secure the consent of the attorney general to a compromise and in this case the court commends the attorney general for refusing to accept a compromise

HARMON MUST SHOULDER BLAME

Democrats and Republicans See Flaw in Tax Bills

Columbus O Jan 24 — The legislature must enact an absolute one per cent tax limit or it will come back in special session for that purpose

That is the ultimatum of Governor Harmon as transmitted to the members of the legislature Many Democratic members are anxious that some saving clause be inserted believing that an absolute one per cent limit will very seriously embarrass many Ohio cities and some counties Smith of Marion who introduces the bill has urged the governor to permit of some modification but the latter attributes much of his political success of his economy propaganda and refuses to sacrifice any part of it by yielding this point

Several Democratic and Republican leaders have said they will fight the bill in its proposed form and the Democrats say that if they are dragooned to vote for it they will have it plainly understood that the responsibility for results will rest with the governor and not with them They contend that the only thing that will make the bill practicable is legislation that will force out of hiding the last amount of personal property that now evades taxation
